Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
18*th May* 1866.

No. 170. Read the following letter from the Examiner of Claims, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated 16th May 1866, No. 32.

I have the honor, by direction of the Accountant General, to submit, at Mr. Wilkins' request, his application for privilege leave, with my report upon the same, in order that Government, should they see fit, may pass the special orders required, under which this office may, in the present and future cases, admit the claims of Officers and members of that establishment to privilege leave, upon the ground of their having been at duty during the adjournment.

2. Without such special orders, this office cannot do otherwise than apply to the whole Judicial Department the same rule as regards privilege leave.

From T. WILKINS, Esq., Deputy Registrar of the High Court, Appellate Side, to the Registrar of the High Court of Judicature at Madras; dated Madras, 7th May 1866.

I have the honor to request you will kindly submit to the Honorable the Chief Justice, with your recommendation, this my application for cumulative privilege leave of absence for two months, commencing after the 15th instant, under Sections 16 and 17 of the Revised Uncovenanted Absentee Rules, and the Order of the Government of India, dated the 31st July 1863, No. 3478.

2. I last obtained privilege leave on the 30th May, and returned to my duty on the 15th July 1864.

No. 2391.
Forwarded for report.
(By order of the High Court).
(Signed) P. P. HUTCHINS,
Registrar, Appellate Side.

7th May 1866.
To the Examiner of Claims.

No. 44.
MEMORANDUM.

Not eligible to privilege leave under Section 16 of the Uncovenanted Service Absentee Rules, as the Court's adjournment has been declared by Government to be equivalent to privilege leave.

(Signed) W. DONALD,
Examiner of Claims.

8th May 1866.

No. 2414.

Re-submitted to the Examiner of Claims, with the remark that Mr. Wilkins did not leave Madras during the adjournments of 1864 and 1865, his presence being necessary on public grounds.

(Signed) P. P. HUTCHINS,
Registrar, High Court.

8th May 1866.
To the Examiner of Claims.

No. 44.
MEMORANDUM.

Notwithstanding that Mr. Wilkins was present at his station during the adjournment of 1864-65, he cannot be allowed privilege leave under the Uncovenanted Service Absentee Rules, without the special sanction of Government.

9th May 1866.

(Signed) W. DONALD,
Examiner of Claims.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
18th May 1866.

No. 171. ORDER THEREON, 18th May 1866, No. 753.

The Governor in Council considers that such of the Judges or Ministerial Officers of the High Court as are detained on duty during the annual adjournment should be allowed the advantage of privilege leave under the Absentee Rules. The High Court is differently situated from the Courts in the Provinces, being kept open during the adjournment, for the despatch of emergent business.
