Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
13th May 1866.

No. 185. Read the following letter from the Inspector General of Police, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Madras, 28th April 1866, No. 687.

I have the honor to forward, for favorable consideration of Government, the Petition of C. Vurdah Chari, to be exempted from passing the Pleaders' Special Test, at least temporarily, so as to enable him to practice in Mofussil Courts.

2. Petitioner is an old servant in the Military Pay Office, of some 19 years' standing. Anticipating a reduction, he sought employment in the Police, as Accountant in Nellore. There, his health broke down within (3) months, and domestic afflictions obliged him to leave. He has been on leave ever since, being, and is, quite unfit for Police life. He wishes to make an independent livelihood.

3. If the exemption can be made, this is, I think, a case in which the concession may advantageously be permitted.

To

THE HONORABLE A. J. ARBUTHNOT,

Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George.

The humble petition of CALUMBAKUN VURDAH CHARI, Inspector of Police, Nellore, on leave, residing at Triplicane, Madras,

HUMBLY SHEWETH,

That your petitioner is an old servant of Government of more than 20 years' continuous service; held the posts of Examiner, Clerk, Writer and Accountant in the Pay Offices, Vellore and Presidency; and now employed as Inspector of Police in Nellore District, on a salary of 75 Rupees per mensem—vide Testimonials enclosed.

2. From the misfortunes happened in your petitioner's family, and from the disagreement of the climate of Nellore, petitioner's health compelled him to come to Madras on sick leave, and this was continued by private leaves up to 30th June 1866. As the petitioner's health is no more considered suitable to the Police duties, he is warned by the Inspector General of Police to seek service elsewhere.

3. As your petitioner has tried all his best to secure a berth elsewhere, and found sadly fruitless, for want of a patron to back his endeavours, he now wishes to practice himself as a Pleader in the Mofussil Courts, considering it not only honorable but a lucrative source for the lawful maintenance of faithful public servants, involving no trouble and expense either on the part of Government as regards pay, or of gentleman for favor, and begs that your honor will be so good as to lay his case before His Excellency the Governor, with a view to your petitioner being temporarily exempted from the prescribed special test for a year, on the following grounds:

1*st*.—Petitioner is an old servant of 20 years' standing, held responsible appointments, and entitled for one-third pension by both old and new rules.

2*nd*.—Petitioner, although he has sufficient knowledge in Laws and Regulation, yet never attempted to pass the test in last examination, as he was then not warned. A sufficient time should be allowed to an old servant of Government like your petitioner, to enable him to pass the prescribed test, and his previous service may not be affected for pension by break.

4. Petitioner need hardly mention here that to relieve a Government servant who entertains great hopes of future maintenance from the public purse, and reduced to forlorn condition as himself, without at least any means for earning even his daily bread in the latter part of his career, is not only a charitable, but also a proper case, for the due exercise of the commiseration of Government.

5. For which act of favor and protection shall, as in duty bound, ever pray.

MADRAS, TRIPLICANE, 26*th April* 1866. (Signed) C. VURDAH CHARI.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 18th May 1866.

No. 186. ORDER THEREON, 18th May 1866, No. 762.

The Governor in Council is unable to accede to the recommendation contained in the foregoing letter. Vurdah Chari's past service has been exclusively in the Military Pay Office, where he cannot be supposed to have acquired any knowledge of Law to qualify him for the important office of Pleader, for which so many candidates have already passed, and are annually passing the prescribed Special Tests.

(True Extract).

Chief Secretary.
