MILITARY DEPARTMENT.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Read the following letter :—

From the Collector of Madras, Saidapet, 9th May 1866, No. 71; to the Secretary to Government, Military Department, Fort Saint George.

One Oomerkhan, a pensioned trooper, in the receipt of Rupees 4 a month and rice money, was lately appointed by me a Daloyet in my office, the salary of which is 8 Rupees.

2. It appears that the rules of the Government do not permit a pensioner drawing inclusive of his pension a higher salary than that attached to the particular office he may be appointed to.

3. This seems however to be hard, particularly in the case of Oomerkhan, whose whole pay and pension would only amount to 12 Rupees, hardly sufficient to keep a family upon in these times, and as it is to be concluded that his pension was meant more as a reward for a certain number of years' service than on account of his having been temporarily incapacitated for further duty. I request that you will obtain the sanction of the Government, for the said Oomerkhan being permitted to continue to draw his pension in addition to his full pay, as he is now quite recovered in health and well fitted for the post he has been appointed to.

*To be returned.

4. Oomerkhan's certificate* and characters* are herewith sent.

ORDER, No. 1805, 28th May 1866.

The Governor in Council sees no sufficient reason, in the present instance, for setting aside the rule laid down in the Paragraph 158, Section XIII.

Pay and Audit Regulations, regarding the emoluments to be drawn by Military pensioners employed in the Revenue or Judicial branches of the service. The ordinary pay of a Daloyet is Rupees 8, and His Excellency considers that an addition to the pension of Oomerkhan, to make it up to that sum, will afford a fair remuneration for the service required.
