Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,

4th June 1866.

No. 41. Read the following letter from the Registrar of the High Court of Judicature at Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Madras, 18th May 1866, No. 28.

With reference to your letter, of the 27th of March, No. 453, I am directed by the Chief Justice and Judges of the High Court to forward, for publication in the Fort Saint George Gazette, a copy of an Order of Court, dated 23rd May 1863. This is the only rule made since April 1862 of which Section 443 of the Code of Criminal Procedure requires the publication.

APPEAL.

Upon appeals to the High Court in Criminal cases, after the record of the proceedings of the Lower Court has been called for, Advocates or Vakeels may appear and be heard on behalf of the complainant or party prosecuting : provided that only one Advocate or Vakeel will be heard in each case, and that in cases in which the Government Pleader appears in support of the conviction, he alone will be heard.

By the Court.

(Signed) G. R. SHARPE,

Acting Registrar.

23rd May 1863.

(A true Copy).

(Signed) P. P. HUTCHINS,

Registrar, Appellate Side.

No. 42. ORDER THEREON, 4th June 1866, No. 875.

Ordered, accordingly, that the Ruling of the High Court appended to the foregoing letter be published in the Fort Saint George Gazette.

(True Extract).

Acting Chief Secretary.
