No. 111. Read the following letter from the Civil and Session Judge, Bellary, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Judicial Department, dated Bellary, 15th May 1866, No. 13 :—

* No. 18, 5th March 1866.

1. With reference to the Orders of Government noted in the margin,* intimating that it has been found impracticable to allot funds (Rupees 35,000) in the Budget of 1866-67 for the proposed new Court House at Bellary, I have the honor to solicit that, if possible, a sum of Rupees 10,000 may be allowed for the purpose of laying the foundations, which would thus have time to settle down before the superstructure were built upon them.

2. The unfitness of the present building for the principal Court of a large and important District is the subject of general remark.

Transferred to the Public Works Department.
