With reference to your letter of the 18th instant, I have the honor to forward an original letter received from Dr. King, and from which it will be seen that that gentleman is not prepared to pass an examination of the nature referred to.

2. The Court being adjourned, and Mr. Walhouse absent, his signature does not appear to this letter.

From Assistant Surgeon H. KING, A. B. and M. B., Superintendent of Jail, Mangalore, to the Collector, South Canara; dated Mangalore, 26th May 1866.

With reference to the letter (No. 23) from Secretary to Board of Examiners, to the Civil Judge and Collector of Mangalore, specifying the nature of the examination in Canarese which I am to pass, in order to draw full allowance as Superintendent of Jail, I have the honor to inform you that I am not prepared to pass any examination whatever in reading Canarese; that I understood the test required by Government to be precisely the same as that demanded from Medical Officers to qualify for charge of Native troops, in which no reading is required; and that, if this is to be considered necessary in the present case, I shall have to request permission to withdraw my application for examination, and resign the appointment of Superintendent of the Jail, as I am unwilling to incur further expense or loss of time in studying Canarese, for an addition of Rupees 20 per mensem to my allowances, or to undertake the responsible, and by no means formal, duties of Superintendent for a salary of Rupees 30.
