Memorandum.

Referring to letter No 20 under date the 13th Inst from the Regr Genl of Assurances and the bill therein enclosed for Rs 200 on acct of Lamp oil used in during the hours of many in performing extra work at the Press for that Officer I beg leave to state that the details of Expenditure of oil cannot be given in support of the charge; but I wd submit that the following statement of circumstances caused solely by that extra work, sufficiently explains the largeness of the charge.

The Bill is signed by the Foreman & under the responsibility of the Foreman.

2. The Office was open one night in April and twenty six nights in May: that is to say it was open day & night continuously (Sundays excepted) for that time:- 21 presses, 6 machines, 1 hot beds and storerooms, about 100 men & 50 (12 lights) women were employed -

3. The Repetition Proofs ... apparently object to the charge
