TRANSLATION.

From Vicomte A. d'ARGANZAY, Chief of the Service of Mahé, to the Collector of Malabar, dated Mahé, 4th June 1867, No. 13.

In my letter of the 18th April last, No. 9, I had the honor to address, direct to you, an application for the extradition of a man named Maliemele Assin Cootty, a French subject, accused of theft with house-breaking. This application was supported by a warrant issued against him by the Imperial Procurator.

2. In your reply of the 14th May last, No. 1128, you requested me to renew the application for extradition, either through the channel of the Governor of the French Settlements in India, or direct to you.

3. I accordingly now again request you, Monsieur le Collecteur, to be good enough to give orders, in order that the said Maliemele Assin Cootty, who is supposed to be at Cochin, may be arrested and taken before the Commissary of Police at Mahé.
