Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 6th July 1867.

No. 82. Read the following Proceedings of the Government of India, Financial Department, dated Simla, 19th June 1867, No. 870.

Leave and Allowances.

Read endorsement from the Home Department, No. 2870, dated the 20th March 1867, forwarding a copy of a letter from the Government of Bengal, inquiring what orders have been passed on a proposal to extend to Deputy Inspectors General of Police the indulgence, in respect to the conveyance of tents and horses by rail, which was conceded to Superintendents and Assistant Superintendents of Police in the Resolution, No. 1823, passed in this Department on the 8th August 1866, and intimating "that the Inspector General of Police has also applied to be allowed the privilege in question."

RESOLUTION.—The application relating to Deputy Inspectors General of Police has already been disposed of in the Notification of this Department, No. 1678, dated the 27th March 1867.

2. With regard to the Inspectors General, the Governor General in Council observes that as an Inspector General of Police gets travelling allowance at 10 Rupees a day, and a Deputy Inspector General at 6 Rupees a day, the indulgence of carrying tents and horses by rail, which is given to the Deputy Inspector General, is not necessarily admissible to the Inspector General. The occasions on which an Inspector General has to travel suddenly so as to be unable to send his horses by road beforehand, and to be obliged to convey them by rail, must be rare; while the instances too in which the ordinary mileage for journeys by rail, and the liberal rate of 10 Rupees a day for marches on the termination of the railway transit, fail to cover the expenses of the whole journey, must be still more rare.

3. For these reasons His Excellency in Council is pleased to decide that the indulgence applied for by Inspectors General shall be granted only in cases in which they are unable to send their horses a-head by the ordinary marches, and in which the railway fares for themselves, servants, and tents, and their marching expenses for the whole period of absence on tour, are not covered by the ordinary mileage and the marching allowance of 10 Rupees a day.

ORDER.—Ordered that the foregoing Resolution be communicated to
