Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,

17th July 1867.

No. 178. Read the following letter from the Civil and Session Judge of Coimbatore, to the Acting Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Coimbatore, 2nd July 1867, No. 9.

The writing table on the Bench of this Court is very old and shabby, and altogether unsuited for the purpose of a Court of this nature. I have the honor, therefore, to request the Government will be pleased to permit me to purchase a new one, to match the chair on the Bench, which is a very good one.

2. The expense of a new plain substantial table, covered with leather, might be, I should think, Rupees 100.

No. 179. ORDER THEREON, 17th July 1867, No. 1129.

The Government sanction the purchase of a new table for the Judge's Bench, but are of opinion that an article of furniture of the kind referred to should be procurable at Coimbatore for a sum considerably below (100) one hundred Rupees.

(True Extract).

Acting Chief Secretary.

To the Civil Judge of Coimbatore.
" Accountant General,

Ed. J. H. Barré.

No. 100 for a table, at a place like Combati, seems a large sum. Oak & rose wood can be had at hand in any quantity at low rates - I would say

" The gods sanction
the purchase of a new table for the judges
bench, but are of opinion that an article of furniture of this kind expended, should be procurable for a sum considerably below
one hundred (100) Rs."
