Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 22nd July 1867.

No. 247. Read the following letter from the Inspector General of Jails, to the Acting Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Ootacamund, 13th July 1867, No. 64.

With reference to the Order of Government noted in the margin, I have the honor to state that the Superintendent of the Jail at Nellore has made a further report, requesting that the insane prisoner Chintam Venkata Reddy may be transferred to the Lunatic Asylum, as he continues troublesome and mischievous. He also recommends that a female insane prisoner, named Gangula Mahlatchmi, may be transferred likewise for the same reason. I therefore request that, in event of Government being pleased to sanction the transfer, I may be permitted to carry it out in communication with the Officer in charge of the Lunatic Asylum, whenever accommodation may be available therein.

2. The Order of Government, directing the detention of the female Gangula Mahlatchmi in the Nellore Jail, was not communicated to this office, nor has a copy of the Proceedings of Government, No. 806, dated 16th May, been as yet received.

3. The report of the Superintendent of the Jail is herewith forwarded.

From the Superintendent of Jail, Nellore, to the Inspector General of Jails, Madras; dated Nellore, 6th July 1867, No. 95.

I have the honor to report that both the male and female insane prisoners, as per margin, are Male—Chintam Venkata Reddy confined in Jail since 23rd January 1867, as per G. O. No. 273, dated 20th February 1867.

Female—Gangula Mahlatchmi confined in Jail since 12th April 1867, as per G. O. No. 682, dated 29th April 1867.

getting worse and more incorrigible from day to day, and treatment in Jail hospital seems to be of no avail. They continue very noisy and exceedingly troublesome and mischievous, and the damage done to the cells they are locked in, and to the Jail property, is very great; for unless bound hand and foot they force out the doors and windows of their cells, and every piece of cloth given to them is torn into shreds in a very short time.

2. I therefore request you will be good enough to obtain sanction for their early transfer to the Lunatic Asylum at Madras for further treatment and observation.

No. 248. ORDER THEREON, 22nd July 1867, No. 1170.

The Governor in Council is pleased to direct that, as soon as the Inspector General of Jails shall have ascertained that accommodation is available in the Lunatic Asylum at Madras, the prisoner Chintam Venkata Reddy, at present confined in the Nellore Jail, be transferred to that institution.

2. It is observed that the transfer of the female lunatic, Gangula Mahlatchmi, was ordered in Proceedings of Government, dated the 12th instant, No. 1109, and that a copy of the Proceedings of the 16th May, No. 806, has been forwarded to the Inspector General of Jails.
