Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 23rd July 1867.

No. 257. Read the following letter from the Registrar General of Assurances, Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Madras, 15th July 1867, No. 95.

I have the honor, with reference to the Government Orders, No. 189 of the 6th February, No. 972 of the 15th June, and No. 818 of the 18th May, to submit, for approval and publication in the Fort Saint George Gazette, a draft Notification sanctioning certain amendments in the Rules which are rendered necessary by these orders.

2. The revised Rules 14—25 have been submitted to the Accountant General, who considers them unobjectionable.

No. 258. ORDER THEREON, 23rd July 1867, No. 1176.

Ordered that the draft Notification received with the foregoing letter be returned to the Registrar General of Assurances for revision with the following remarks.

2. Clause 2nd of paragraph 16 will be omitted, and the following inserted instead:—

“The Registrars are permitted to disburse these allowances as they may consider essential for the efficient discharge of their office work, furnishing an account thereof monthly to the Registrar General. The Registrars will be held personally responsible for all arrears of work during their tenure of office.”

3. Paragraph 17 will be entirely omitted. The arrangement to which it refers is a temporary one. It is not generally applicable, and there is no apparent necessity for including it in the permanent rules of the Department.

4. Paragraph 18 will be altered as follows:—

“The Mofussil Registrars will draw their salaries and allowances on abstracts which will be submitted for audit in the usual form to the Accountant General. The Registrar of Madras will submit the abstracts for salary for himself and for his establishment to the Examiner of Claims. Should any expenditure, not coming under the head of Stationery, be incurred during any month, a Contingent bill for such expenditure shall be submitted for the countersignature of the Registrar General, accompanied by vouchers in support of each item. If the vouchers are not in English, translations must be appended. The Registrar of Madras is at liberty to incur charges not exceeding Rupees (5) five, without previous sanction. The Mofussil Registrars shall in all except emergent cases obtain previous sanction for any special expenditure which they may consider it necessary to incur.”

(True Extract).

Acting Chief Secretary.

To the Registrar General of Assurances, with Draft Notification.

31. In Salem and North Arcot the inscription on the seal of the Registrars, and Sub-Registrars shall be in English and Tamil, except in the Sub-Districts noted in the margin in which it shall be in English and Telugu.

32. The seal shall always remain in the personal custody of the officer.

33. Care shall be taken to produce a distinct and legible impression with it and for this purpose a pad and printing ink shall be used whenever practicable.

34. The seal shall be used in authenticating

(a) The certificate endorsed on a registered instrument, under Section 68 or 70.

(b) Powers of attorney attested by a Registrar or Sub-Registrar, under Section 35.

(c) Commissions issued under Sections 35 and 39.

(d) Copies of memoranda forwarded under Section 75.

(e) Orders under Section 79.

36. If owing to some unavoidable cause a Registering officer should find himself temporarily unprovided with the prescribed seal, registration shall nevertheless go on as usual, and such instruments as may be admitted to registration shall remain in the Registering officer's custody until the seal can be affixed to the certificate.

37. The Registers and Indexes shall contain the forms hereunto appended.

38. Every Register shall contain 500 pages.

39. Any book may be supplied in loose sheets to offices in which there is a probability of more than four instruments per diem being entered in it. In such cases the volume shall be bound, when completed.

40. The indexes shall also be supplied in loose sheets which shall be lettered as they are brought into use, and bound up into volumes at the end of the year. Under this arrangement as many pages will be allotted to each initial letter as circumstances may render necessary, and though there may be some blank pages there will be no blank sheets.

41. The Registrar General will from time to time supply the Registrars with books for their own use and for that of their Sub-Registrars. Every Sub-Registrar shall at all times have a reserve supply comprising one volume, or as many loose sheets as are equivalent to a volume of Registers No. 1 and 6 and whenever it becomes necessary for him to bring any of these spare volumes into use, he shall immediately indent on the Registrar for a fresh volume to replace it. He shall also keep on hand a reserve supply of sheets for Indexes No. I, II, and III, equivalent to the probable consumption of half a year. A permanent reserve supply of book No. 2 will not be needed, but when the volumes in use are half full, indents for fresh ones must be sent in. Indexes to book 2 will be supplied when required.

42. Every volume of the reserve supply shall be carefully examined by the Sub-Registrar as soon as it reaches him, and any volume which may be found incomplete or incorrect shall be at once returned with a memorandum pasted into it, stating in what particulars it is defective. A copy of this memorandum shall be forwarded with a letter to the Registrar, who shall immediately replace the volume so returned.

43. If the defects of the latter are found on examination to be of a nature which can be easily remedied on the spot, the Registrar shall incur such expense as may be necessary for the purpose and either charge it in his monthly contingent bill, or in a special contingent bill. Otherwise the volume shall be returned by the first opportunity to the Registrar General.

44. Under the above arrangements no officer should ever be unprovided with the requisite registers, but if owing to any unavoidable accident, such a contingency should arise, instruments tendered for registration shall nevertheless be received as usual, the necessary enquiries shall be held, and the prescribed endorsements shall be made. But as the certificate cannot be added until the instrument is copied into the register, all such instruments must remain in the registering officer's custody until the process of registration has been completed.

45. If a Registrar should happen to be unprovided with the prescribed fire-proof box, he will recommend persons who are desirous of depositing sealed covers to wait until the box arrives, but if they are willing to incur the risk with which the custody of their sealed covers will be attended, he must receive them and make the best arrangements he can for taking care of them.

46. Half yearly returns of all registers and indexes received and issued by the Registrars shall be submitted in the form hereunto appended, on the 1st May and 1st November.

47. On receipt of these returns such supplies as may seem necessary will be forwarded from time to time, but if any sudden demand should arise for books, early notice of such demand should be given.

On the other hand it may happen that a Registering officer understands the language in which an instrument presented for registration is written, although it is not a language commonly used in the district. Thus a deceased person may be represented by the administrator to his estate, or by his executor, a firm by one of its members, a Bank or Public Company by the Secretary, Agent, or one or more of the Directors, an endowed charity by one or more of the Trustees, but in all such cases, the right of the party claiming to be a representative must be proved by the production of the letters of Administration, Probate, Will, Decree or Order of Court, Charter, Trust Deed, Power of Attorney or other instrument on which the claim is based, or such other evidence as may in the opinion of the Registering Officer be sufficient.

76. Before entering on the enquiry prescribed in Section 36, the Registering Officer will make all the executing parties attest any interlineations, blanks, erasures or alterations which the document brought for registration may contain.

77. It shall form no part of the Registering Officer's duty to enquire into the validity of the documents brought to him for registration or to

78. But registration may be objected to on any of the following grounds.

81. Documents executed by persons who are unable to read shall be read out and if necessary explained to the parties, and the Registering Officer shall ascertain that they clearly understand the purport of the document executed by them. Documents written in a language not understood by the executing party, shall in like manner be interpreted to him. And even when the executing party writes and understands the language of the document, the Registering Officer shall, if the age, youth or sex of the party, renders it in his opinion doubtful whether the purport of the instrument has been fully apprehended, put such questions to him, or her, as he may consider necessary, to satisfy himself on this point.

93. All proper names shall be entered in full. Initials shall not be used. Thus John Brown shall not be entered as J. Brown or Tota Venkana as T. Venkana.

94. If a person is known under two different names, each shall be indexed. Thus Syed Housain alias Nunnaye Mian shall be indexed first as Syed Housain, and then as Nunnaye Mian.

95. English names shall be indexed with reference to the first letter of the person's family name, the Christian and any other names which the person may bear being entered after the family name. Compound names such as DeSylva, O'Connell, Van Haeften, shall be considered as single words.

96. Telugu names shall be indexed with reference to the first letter of the person's house name. This house name is often the name of some village, but not that of the village or town in which the person is residing. Affixes and prefixes denoting the rank, occupation, or caste of the person, such as Maharajah, Rajah, Dora, Naidoo, Reddi, Shetti, Mahant, Purohit, Shastree, Puntoloo, Shroff, Chakelee, Mala, Madigay, shall be entered in the column headed addition as well as the person's ordinary place of residence.

97. In Tamil, Canarese, and Uriya, there are properly speaking no house names. Sometimes the person is distinguished by the name of the village from which he has come, or in which his family reside. In other cases he prefixes the name of his father or grand-father. The indexing must therefore be regulated by the initial letter of the person's proper name, his village name, or his father's name being entered under the head of addition, together with the person's ordinary place of residence, and any affix or prefix denoting rank, occupation, or caste, &c., such as Iyengar, Moodelly, Pillay in Tamil; Achari, Rao, Bhutt, Shanbogum in Canarese; Bissoye, Patro, Putnaick, Mahariah, Swace, Guntayet in Uriya.

98. In Malayalam, the names of Nairs, Numboories and Teers shall be indexed with reference to the initial letter of the person's family name. The other castes have usually no house names, and whenever this is the case, the indexing must proceed on the principle laid down in the preceding paragraph. All caste titles, such as Potter, Nair, Menon, Numboory, Moopen shall be entered in the column headed addition.

99. Mahomedans have no house or family names. Syed or Mir indicates that the person is by birth a Syed; Shaik or Ghulam, that he is a Shaik; Mirza, Beg, Aga, that he is a Mogul; Khan, that he is a Pathan; Shureef that his father is a Shaik, and his mother a Syedance. Pomalo surnames for Sayidanis are Begum, Bibi, or Bi, Nissa and Shah; for Moghulanis, Khanum; for Pathanis Khatoun or Banu, but when illegitimate, Bai is invariably subjoined. The indexing shall therefore be regulated by the initial letter of the person's proper name, such as Housain, Hyder, Qadir, and not by any of the above affixes or prefixes. These must be entered in the column headed addition, with the person's address and any affixes or prefixes of the nature of titles or indicating the trade or occupation of the person, such as Nawab, Hajee, Mulla, Subadar, Soudagar, Nulbund, Kusayoo. Sahib, Miyau and Jan are loving titles given by parents, but as they often supersede the true names, they must not be ignored. Mahomedans are sometimes distinguished by the name of some Hindoo village, or of the office which they bear in the village, as Reddi. Any particulars of this nature shall be entered in the column headed addition. Mahomedan names often appear in a corrupt form, when transliterated into the Hindoo vernacular languages, Fatima Bi being changed into Bathma Bior Pathma Bi, Zumeer Khan into Jumeer Khan, &c. All Mahomedan names should therefore be written if possible in Hindoostanee or English, as well as in the Vernacular, when the indexes are forwarded in the vernacular.

100. The indexing of names in languages which are not in general use in this Presidency or for which no special rules are provided, such as Mahratta, Guzerati, Parsee, Tulu, Khond, &c., shall proceed on the same general principles as have been laid down for the other languages.

101. The names of Native Christians, who have Christian names and family names shall be indexed in the same manner as English names. Sometimes however a Native Christian has no family name and prefixes his father's Christian name to his own as Anthony Lazar, i. e., Lazar, son of Anthony, or the name of some village as Mylapore Lazar, i. e., Lazar of Mylapore. In other cases a Hindoo caste title is affixed to one or more names, as David Solomon Pillay, in which the proper name is Solomon, David is the father's name, and Pillay is a caste title. In these and all similar cases, the names must be indexed in the same manner as Hindoo names.

102. The names of Native women shall be indexed with reference to the initial letter of their proper name and the column headed addition shall contain the woman's address, the name of her husband, father or guardian, and such other particulars as may be necessary to identify her.

103. When an instrument is executed on behalf of a Corporation, Company, Bank, Firm or other body by a Secretary, Director, Treasurer, Trustee, Agent, or other person authorized to appear and act as its representative, the indexing shall be regulated by the initial letter of the name of the body represented and the name of the representing party shall be entered in the column headed addition.

104. All instruments executed by, or on behalf of Government, shall be indexed together under the letter G and the name of the Officer representing Government as well as of the office held by him, shall be entered in the column headed addition. One or more pages shall be specially set aside for these entries.

105. When two persons bearing the same name are commonly distinguished by such additions as Senior, Junior, Pedda, Chinna, Burra, Chota, these shall be entered in the column headed addition.

106. When English names commencing with the letter W have to be indexed in the vernacular languages in which there is no W, such names shall be entered under the letter V (వ, వ, వ, వ) if the W is pronounced, and if it is silent under the first letter which is pronounced. Thus Wilson will be entered under V as వైల్సన్, వైల్సన్, వైల్సన్, వైల్సన్, Wray under R, as రై, రై, రై, రై, Wright under R, as రైట్, రైట్, రైట్, రైట్.

107. The names of all persons executing instruments and of the first plaintiff mentioned in a Memorandum of a decree or order of Court, shall be entered in black ink. The names of all parties claiming under documents or of the first defendant mentioned in a Memorandum or order of Court shall be entered in red ink.

108. Illustrations of the application of these rules will be found in the following specimen page.

109. Index No. ii shall be so prepared as to admit as far as possible of the various conveyances, mortgages, leases, &c., of any property entered in it being traced back in successive order through the different volumes in which they appear. When therefore, an instrument relating to immovable property is admitted to registration, the Registering Officer shall ascertain from the parties the number or date of the last registration affecting the property to which the instrument relates, and if the registration in question can be at once traced either by the production of the last instrument registered or by the number and date given by the parties, a reference shall be made to this last registration by entering the number, page, volume, and book, in red ink, under the corresponding entries in black ink. There shall be no extra charge for such entries. If on the other hand the parties are not able to give the requisite information, and if the previous registration can be discovered only by a regular search, such search shall be made or allowed only on payment of the prescribed fee, and if the parties are unwilling to pay the fee, the entries in red ink above referred to shall not be made.

110. The column headed name and description of property need not necessarily contain all the particulars stated in Section 21, but the name when there is one, must always be given and the description must be sufficiently full to admit of the property being at once identified by any person coming to search the books.

111. If the property described in the instrument consists of lands or houses situated in different villages, each must be separately indexed.

112. If the immovable property is situated in a suburb or hamlet which for revenue purposes is treated as forming a portion of some town or village, the indexing shall be regulated by the initial letter of the town or village and not of the suburb or hamlet.

113. The column headed nature and value of transaction shall contain a brief record of all material facts which do not come under any of the other headings, such as the terms of a sale, the covenants of a lease, the conditions of a mortgage, the consideration paid, the balance promised to be paid and any other similar particulars.

115. Every Sub-Registrar shall on the 1st of the month, send to the Registrar to whom he is subordinate, two copies of all entries made by him in his Indexes Nos. i and ii during the past month, with a memorandum or letter, specifying the number of sheets forwarded. Should there be any arrears of work, he shall be bound to report the same.

116. On the receipt in the Registrar's Office of these monthly copies of entries, it shall be his duty to ascertain that they are properly prepared and legibly written, and if necessary to return them for correction or explanation. If there are errors which he has power to rectify, under Section 79, he shall issue the necessary order. If there are errors which cannot be remedied, he shall nevertheless point them out in order that they may not be repeated. He shall also notice any delay which may occur in the transmission of the monthly copies of Indexes.

When they have all come in, the Registrar shall forward one set to the General Registry Office with a copy of the entries made in his own Indexes, accompanied by a letter or memorandum specifying the number of sheets for each Office, and the arrears of work if any. The set retained by the Registrar shall be so arranged that the Indexes received from one Sub-District shall not be liable to be confounded with those of another. At the end of the year these sheets shall be bound into volumes, containing each about 500 pages. The set of volumes containing Indexes No. i shall be entirely distinct from the set of volume containing Indexes No. ii. One or more volumes may be assigned, if necessary to each Sub-Registrar, or the Indexes of several Sub-Registrars may constitute a single volume. In the former case there shall be placed at the beginning of the volume or of each volume a title page containing the following entry:—

INDEX No. I (OR II.)

SUB-REGISTRAR
OFPART I (OR II.)
A to F (or G to Z.)

In the latter case each set of Indexes bound up in one single volume shall be separated by a title page containing the particulars above mentioned.

117. The Registrar's own Indexes shall be bound up in volumes in the same manner.

118. The alphabetical Index to Book No. 2 shall be prepared in the form hereunto appended.

NOTIFICATION.

Fort St. George, November 21, 1866.

THE Governor in Council is pleased to sanction the following alteration in the Rules for the registration of Assurances, published on the 24th April 1866.

For the present rule 130 read,

130.—The Office of every Registrar, except that of the Registrar of Madras, and except such Registrars' Offices as may be in charge of a Civil and Sessions Judge, and the Office of every Sub-Registrar, shall be inspected twice a year by such Officers as Government may determine. Such Officers shall have no authority to issue any orders to the Registrars or Sub-Registrars, but shall report the result of their inspection to the Registrar General, who will thereon pass such orders as may be necessary. The Registrar General shall from time to time, furnish the inspecting Officers with information and instructions with regard to the points requiring their special attention, and every facility shall be afforded to them in the performance of their duty by the Registering Officers.

By Order of the Governor in Council.

A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secy.

The following form of affirmation shall be administered to Hindoos and Mahomedans, under Act V of 1840 :-

"I solemnly affirm in the presence of Almighty God, that what I shall state, shall be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth."

124. The notes of evidence referred to in this Section shall not be recorded on loose sheets of paper, but shall be entered in a blank book which shall be kept for that purpose in every Registration Office.

125. All copies of documents forwarded from one registration Office to another, under the provisions of Sections 72, 73, 74, and 78, shall be written on sheets of paper, which will be specially supplied for this purpose, and which will exactly correspond with a page of Book No. 1, with the exception that the space allotted in the latter to the heading and copy of Memorandum under Section 41, will be omitted. These sheets, which will contain a narrow column for the copy of the endorsement and certificate and a broad column for the copy of the instrument, shall be written only on one side, and shall be pasted into the books of the Offices to which they are forwarded, each column being placed under its appropriate heading. No new District or Sub District numbers shall be given to such documents, but they shall be indexed like all other documents. Copies of maps and plans forwarded from one registration Office to another, shall be pasted into the books in the same manner as copies of registered documents.

126. The particulars required in Section 77 shall be noted in the following form on every sealed cover deposited in a Registrar's Office.

No. of 1866.

Presented at 3 P.M., on the 1st December 1866 by Mr. Charles Smith (or by Mr. William Jones Agent of Mr. Charles Smith, under a special Power of Attorney, dated _____ and authenticated by the Sub-Registrar of Madura) Witnesses to the identity of the Depositor. Captain John Vansittart Woodhouse, 9th Regiment M. N. I.

Assistant Surgeon Henry Cox, H. M. 10th Foot.

Here enter inscription on the seal of the cover.

Signature.

127. The key of the fireproof safe in which sealed covers are deposited shall remain in the personal custody of the Registrar.

128. Every Officer assuming charge of a Registry Office either permanently or temporarily shall compare the sealed covers in the fireproof safe with Book No. 3, and shall report either that they are all correct or that certain sealed covers are missing.

129. Every Registrar shall inspect the office of the Sub-Registrar at his Head Quarter station twice a year, viz., at the beginning of January and at the beginning of July, and shall forward a copy of the orders passed by him after each such inspection, for the information of the Registrar General.

130. Every Registrar shall once a year, or oftener, if necessary, send for the Registers and Indexes of those Sub-Registrars whose Offices he may be unable to inspect, and shall carefully examine the same.

131. Every Registrar or Sub-Registrar, whose Office may be inspected by the Registrar General, shall within one month after receipt of the orders passed with reference to such inspection, or at an earlier date if practicable, report that the orders in question have been carried out, or explain why they have not been carried out.

132. No person shall be permitted to remove any of the books from the Office in which they are deposited, and except during Office hours, the books shall be kept locked up in a box or almirah, of which the key shall remain in the possession of the Registrar or Sub-Registrar.

133. Every precaution shall be taken to protect all books, papers, and documents from the ravages of white ants, accidents from fire, &c.

134. The sanction of the Registrar General must be obtained for the destruction of any books, papers or documents which it may be deemed no longer necessary to keep.

135. Documents presented for registration shall be written or printed with ink on paper or parchment. Maps and plans may be coloured. Cadjan leaf documents and documents written in pencil shall be inadmissible.

136. No map or plan tendered for registration shall exceed eighteen inches in length or twelve inches in breadth.

137. There must be sufficient blank space left in every document to admit of the prescribed endorsements and certificate being entered. In ordinary cases, a space 6 inches in length and 5 inches in breadth will suffice for this purpose, but if the number of executing parties is large or if there are several agents or representatives, or if many witnesses have to be examined and also in cases of special registration and re-registration, a somewhat larger space will be necessary.

138. The Offices of all Registrars and Sub-Registrars shall be open for 6 hours daily, Sundays and holidays excepted. The usual hours shall be from 11 A.M. to 5 P.M., and if these hours are changed, a notice to that effect shall be affixed in the Office for the information of the public, and a report thereof made to the Registrar General or Registrar.

139. Any Registry Office may be open, if necessary, for more than six hours.

140. The same holidays shall be allowed in Registry Offices, as in all other Government Offices.

141. Every Saturday may be a half holiday or every alternate Saturday a whole holiday, if the state of business in the Office admits of it.

142. Such arrangements as may be necessary for the disposal of any emergent business which may arise during the above mentioned holidays will be made by the Registering Officer.

143. Every Sub-Registrar shall submit to the Registrar on the first day of every month such monthly returns as may from time to time be prescribed by the Registrar General. Vide Appendix II, Forms A & B.

144. Every Registrar shall submit to the Registrar General on or before the seventh day of every month, such monthly returns as may from time to time be prescribed. Vide Appendix II, Forms C & D.

145. Every Registrar shall also submit such quarterly, half yearly, and annual returns as may from time to time be prescribed by the Registrar General.

146. The fee of Rupees 10 for the issue of a commission or for attending at a private residence is in addition to such fee as may be leviable for the particular duty which necessitates the attendance of the registering Officer. Thus if a Registrar attends at the residence of a dying man for the purpose of receiving a sealed cover, purporting to contain his will, a fee of Rupees 5 must be levied under clause 10, as well as one of Rupees 10 under clause 13. If a Sub-Registrar attends for the registration of an instrument or the attestation of a power of attorney, the registration fee or attestation fee, as the case may be, must be levied in addition to the fee of Rupees 10. If he attends for the purpose of examining a witness, for which there is no fee, he will be entitled only to a fee of Rupees 10.

147. If several persons residing in the same house have to be examined with reference to the same instrument, one attendance or commission will suffice and therefore only one fee of Rupees 10 shall be levied.

148. If two or more persons intending to execute a joint power of attorney require the attendance of a Registering Officer at the same time and place, only one fee of Rupees 10 shall be charged.

149. If a person requires the Registering Officer's attendance for the purpose of attesting several powers of attorney, the attestation fee shall be levied on each power, but only one fee of Rupees 10 shall be charged.

150. If a single power of attorney is to be executed by several individuals, all of whom reside in different houses, and all of whom require the Registering Officer's attendance, the attestation fee and the additional fee of Rupees 10 shall be paid by every individual who requires the Registering Officer's attendance.

151. A power of attorney may be brought for attestation only, or for registration only, or for both attestation and registration. In the first case the attestation fee only will be levied, in the second the registration fee only, and in the third case both the attestation and the registration fee.

152. Although a power of attorney may be registered like any other instrument, it is not valid for registration purposes unless attested. When powers of attorney are brought to a registration Office by persons who do not understand the distinction between attestation and registration, it will be the duty of the registering Officer to explain the difference and to give such information as may be necessary to prevent the parties from being subjected to unnecessary expense by the registration of powers which need only to be attested.

153. If several persons intending to execute a joint power of attorney appear together at the registration Office, only one attestation fee shall be levied, although the instrument may be prepared in such a form as to render it necessary for the registering Officer to affix his signature more than once. But if the executing parties appear at the Office on different days or at different hours of the same day, the attestation fee shall be levied on each occasion on which the services of the registering Officer may be called into requisition.

154. The fee for search shall entitle the applicant to read the entry for the finding of which the fee has been paid or to have it read to him by any person whom he may have brought with him for that purpose, but it shall not entitle him to take any written notes of the entry.

155. If a search should prove fruitless, the fee shall not be refunded, but the applicant shall, if he wishes it, receive a certificate stating that the entry sought for has not been found in the books.

156. If a person applying for a certified copy is able to specify the number and year of the instrument or the page and volume of the book in which it is entered, the fee for a certified copy shall alone be levied, but if a search is necessary, the fee for a search must be levied as well as that for a certified copy.

157. In a certified copy every figure shall count as a word. If initials or abbreviations are used instead of words, every initial or abbreviation shall count as a word. Thus A. D. 1866, will be equivalent to six words, "Bounded on the N. E." to five words, and A. R. Thompson to three words.

158. All Registers and Indexes kept by the District Registrars under former enactments.— Act XVI of 1864 shall remain in the Offices of the Registrars appointed under this Act.

159. All Registers and Indexes kept prior to the 1st January 1865, shall be transferred from the Offices in which they now are to those of the Registrars.

160. All Registers kept prior to the 1st January 1865, shall be open to inspection and copies of entries in such books, shall be given to all persons applying for such copies.

161. The Registers Nos. 1, 2, and 3, kept under Act XVI of 1864, shall likewise be open to inspection and copies of any entry in such Registers, shall be given to all persons applying for such copies. Register No. 4, and the Register of Deposits of Wills and Register of Wills, shall not be open to general inspection, but copies of entries in them shall be given to any person executing or claiming under the documents to which such entries refer, the requisite search for such entries being made only by the Registering Officer.

162. The table of fees published under the Indian Registration Act, shall be applicable to all searches made, or copies granted under the provisions of this section.

1. All the totals of the columns of the Registrar's return C, shall be carefully transferred to this return, and those columns which do not appear in Return C shall be filled up by reference to the records of the Office. The entry under the head of remittances to the Treasury shall correspond with the Treasury receipt by which it is supported, and no sums shall be entered as having been received from the Treasury unless they have been actually received during the month to which the return relates. The sums received on account of commission, establishment, and contingencies are to be separately entered in the columns provided for that purpose, and if any other money has been received from the Treasury, a note should be appended to the return, explaining distinctly on what account it has been received.
