Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 26th July 1867.

No. 294. Read the following letter from the Acting Clerk of the Crown, to the Acting Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Madras, 23rd July 1867.

With reference to Act XIII of 1865, Section 28, I am directed by the High Court to state that the depositions in the case of James Smith, Charles Keates, otherwise called Gundile, William Hill, and Henry Heath, British subjects, charged with grievous hurt, have been received from the Justice of the Peace, Madras District.

2. I am further directed to inquire whether it is the intention of His Lordship the Governor in Council to issue, under the provisions of the above Act, a Commission, authorizing a Judge of the High Court to hold sittings at any place other than the Court's usual place of sittings.

3. The Register of Preliminary Inquiry in the case held before the Justice of the Peace, Madras District, is herewith forwarded, from which may be gathered the nature of the charge.

No. 295. To the Honorable Sir C. H. SCOTLAND, Kt., Chief Justice of the High Court of Judicature, Madras; dated Fort Saint George, 26th July 1867, No. 1199.

In acknowledging the receipt of Mr. O'Sullivan's letter of the 23rd instant, I am directed to inform you that it is not the intention of the Governor in Council to issue a Commission under the provisions of Act XIII of 1865 for the trial of the case therein referred to.

2. The enclosure received with Mr. O'Sullivan's letter is returned.
