Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
30th July 1867.

No. 326. Read the following letter from the Judges of the Madras Court of Small Causes, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Madras, 11th February 1867, No. 7.

We have the honor to send, herewith, for submission to His Excellency the Governor in Council, the sixteenth Annual Report of the business of the Madras Court of Small Causes, for the year which terminated on the 31st December last.

2. There is a surplus of Rupees sixteen thousand six hundred and forty-five, Annas three, and Pies eleven (16,645-3-11) in favor of Government, over and above the expenses of the Court for the year, as appears by the following statement of receipts and expenses:—

Amount of commission and fees, and fines and unclaimed deposits realized and credited to Government as follows:—

	RS.	A.	P.	RS.	A.	P.
Commission and fees.....	95,863	10	0
Fines.....	200	0	0
Unclaimed deposits.....	214	5	0
				96,277	15	0
Deduct expenses of the Court.....				79,632	11	1
Surplus in favor of Government.....				16,645	3	11

3. There is also an increase of eight hundred and sixteen (816) causes during the year, compared with the number instituted during the preceding year, as appears by the following comparative statement:—

	RS.
Number of causes instituted in 1865.....	20,375
Do. do. in 1866.....	21,191
Increase.....	816

4. There have been one hundred and seventy-three (173) suits for sums over Rupees five hundred (500) instituted during the Year, under the extended jurisdiction of the Court; this is an increase of seventy-nine (79) suits over the ninety-four (94) instituted during the preceding year.

5. The business of the Court has considerably increased since Act XXVI of 1864, extending the jurisdiction of the Court, came into operation; and the additional work and labor thus entailed renders necessary some increase in the establishment of the Court. The existing staff has for some time been unable to discharge the duties devolving upon it as efficiently as is desirable; but we have hitherto refrained from asking the Government to sanction its increase. The augmentation of the business of the Court during the past year, however, makes it no longer possible for us to avoid representing to the Government the inadequacy of the staff employed in the Court. We are induced, therefore, to request that Government will be pleased to sanction our employing the following additional hands, viz:—

One Assistant Translator, at Rupees 35 per month.
One do. Computist, at „ 15 do.
One First Class Writer, at „ 18 do.
One Second do. at „ 15 do.
One Attender, at „ 7 do.
Two Peons, at „ 7 each per month.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 30th July 1867.

6. We consider that the present Translator, whose salary is only Rupees thirty-five (35) per month, and whose duties are onerous and responsible, is inadequately paid, as compared with the salaries of the Translators in other Departments. The documents put in by suitors for translation have of late considerably increased, and it not unfrequently happens that they cannot be got ready in time for the hearing of the suits in which they are intended to be used, which, of course, necessitates an adjournment of these cases to the prejudice of the suitors and the inconvenience of their witnesses and legal advisers, to say nothing of the delay in the speedy disposal of suits and the waste of public time. The Translator, it is true, occasionally obtains assistance from the Chief Interpreter and the Judges' clerks in the translation of documents, but the aid thus afforded is not very great, as these Officers have their own respective duties to attend to in the several Courts of the three Judges, and it is only when they are not thus engaged, which is very rarely the case, that the Translator could depend upon any assistance from them. The employment of an Assistant Translator is urgently needed, and we do not think a salary less than Rupees thirty-five (35) would secure a competent person, nor do we think Rupees fifty (50) too much for the person discharging the duties of Chief Translator. We would, therefore, strongly recommend the present Translator for an increase, and suggest an addition of Rupees fifteen (15) per month to his present salary. We are the more induced to do so, as he has given general satisfaction in the performance of the duties of his office.

7. The employment of the above additional hands, and increase to the salary of the Translator, will entail an extra expense of Rupees one hundred and nineteen (119) per month, or Rupees one thousand four hundred and twenty-eight (1428) per annum, to Government. This will not entail any additional expenditure of the public funds upon the Court, as it will be met from the increased revenue of the Court itself, which we believe will probably be maintained, if not further augmented.

8. We submit, herewith, a tabular statement, in the prescribed form, showing the increase applied for.

No. 327. ORDER THEREON, 30th July 1867, No. 1216.

In the letter above recorded, the Judges of the Court of Small Causes at Madras submit the sixteenth Annual Report of the business of the Court for the year 1866, and apply for an increase to the establishment of the Court, involving an addition of Rupees 119 per mensem to the cost of the present establishment.

2. The several items of increase are—

An addition to the salary of the Translator of Rupees...	15
One Assistant Translator, at	35
One Assistant Computist, at	15
One Writer, at	18
One do. at	15
One Attender, at	7
Two Peons, at Rupees 7 each	14 +

Total... 119

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 30th July 1867.

3. The Judges state that the business of the Court has considerably increased since Act XXVI of 1864 came into operation, and that the existing staff has for some time been unable to discharge the duties devolving upon it as efficiently as is desirable. During the past year there was an increase of 816 in the number of causes instituted, as compared with the number instituted in 1865, and the receipts exceeded the expenditure by Rupees 16,645-3-11.

4. The Governor in Council authorizes the proposed increase of Rupees 15 to the salary of the Translator, and the appointment of an Assistant Translator on Rupees 35 per mensem. These charges will be entered by the Accountant General in the monthly statement of fresh charges, for submission to the Supreme Government. Before sanctioning the other proposed charges, the Government desire to be furnished with a more definite explanation of the necessity of each charge. On reference to the statement, No. 14, appended to the report, it appears that during the first six years which followed the establishment of the Court, the number of causes instituted was much greater than the number instituted in the past year. The number of causes added to the file under the operation of Act XXVI of 1864, during the year 1866, was only 173. Under these circumstances, the Government doubt the necessity of appointing an Assistant Computist, or of adding to the number of writers, which is already large, though the salaries paid are very small. No explanation is given with reference to the proposal to appoint an additional Attender and two additional Watching Peons.

FROM THE JUDGES OF THE MADRAS COURT OF SMALL CAUSES,
TO THE HONORABLE A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government,
Fort Saint George.

SIR,

We have the honor to send, herewith, for submission to His Excellency the Governor in Council, the Sixteenth Annual Report of the business of the Madras Court of Small Causes, for the year which terminated on the 31st December last.

2. There is a surplus of Rupees sixteen thousand six hundred and forty-five, Annas three, and Pies eleven (16,645-3-11) in favor of Government over and above the expenses of the Court for the year, as appears by the following Statement of receipts and expenses:—

Amount of Commission and Fees, and Fines and unclaimed deposits realized and credited to Government as follows:—

Commission and Fees, Rupees	95,863	10	0
Fines	200	0	0
Unclaimed Deposits	214	5	0
		96,277	15 0
Deduct expenses of the Court	Rupees	79,632	11 1
Surplus in favor of Government		16,645	3 11

3. There is also an increase of eight hundred and sixteen (816) Causes during the year, compared with the number instituted during the preceding year; as appears by the following comparative statement:—

Number of Causes instituted in 1865	20,375
Do. in 1866	21,191

Increase... 816

4. There have been one hundred and seventy-three (173) Suits for sums over Rupees five hundred (500) instituted during the year, under the extended jurisdiction of the Court; this is an increase of seventy-nine (79) Suits over the ninety-four (94) instituted during the preceding year.

5. The business of the Court has considerably increased since Act XXVI of 1864, extending the jurisdiction of the Court, came into operation; and the additional work and labor thus entailed, renders necessary some increase in the Establishment of the Court. The existing staff has for some time been unable to discharge the duties devolving upon it as efficiently as is desirable; but we have hitherto refrained from asking the Government to sanction its increase. The augmentation of the business of the Court during the past year, however, makes it no longer possible for us to avoid representing to the Government the inadequacy of the staff employed in the Court. We are induced, therefore, to request that Government will be pleased to sanction our employing the following additional hands, viz:—

One Assistant Translator, at Rupees	35	per month.
One do. Computist, at Rupees	15	per month.
One First Class Writer, at	18	do.
One Second do. at	12	do.
One Attender, at	7	do.
Two Peons, at	7	each do.

6. We consider that the present Translator, whose salary is only Rupees thirty-five (35) per month, and whose duties are onerous and responsible, is inadequately paid, as compared with the salaries of the Translators in other Departments. The Documents put in by Suitors for translation have of late considerably increased, and it not unfrequently happens that they cannot be got ready in time for the hearing of the suits in which they are intended to be used, which of course necessitates an adjournment of these cases to the prejudice of the Suitors and the inconvenience of their witnesses and legal advisers, to say nothing of the delay in the speedy disposal of suits and the waste of public time. The Translator, it is true, occasionally obtains assistance from the Chief Interpreter and the Judges' Clerks in the translation of Documents, but the aid thus afforded is not very great, as these Officers have their own respective duties to attend to in the several Courts of the three Judges, and it is only when they are not thus engaged, which is very rarely the case, that the Translator could depend upon any assistance from them. The employment of an Assistant Translator is urgently needed, and we do not think a salary less than Rupees thirty-five (35) would secure a competent person, nor do we think Rupees fifty (50) too much for the person discharging the duties of Chief Translator. We would, therefore, strongly recommend the present Translator for an increase, and suggest an addition of Rupees fifteen (15) per month to his present salary. We are the more induced to do so, as he has given general satisfaction in the performance of the duties of his office.

7. The employment of the above additional hands and increase to the salary of the Translator, will entail an extra expense of Rupees one hundred and nineteen (119) per month, or Rupees one thousand four hundred and twenty-eight (1,428) per annum, to Government. This will not entail any additional expenditure of the public funds upon the Court, as it will be met from the increased Revenue of the Court itself, which we believe will probably be maintained, if not further augmented.

8. We submit, herewith, a tabular Statement, in the prescribed form, showing the increase applied for.

Madras Court of Small Causes
The 1st day of February 1868

Mad
Chief Clerk

PROCEEDINGS of the MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

And the following letter from the Secretary of the Madras Court of Sessions
No. 30.

Madras 11th February 1867. No. 4.

Letter No. 30. Dated 30 July 1867 No. 1215.

W. H.

In the letter above mentioned the judges of the Court of Sessions Madras at Madras submit the sixteenth annual report of the business of the Court for the year 1866, and propose for an increase of the establishment of the Court involving an addition of Rs. 110 per month to the cost of the present establishment.
The

2. The social status of increase in

An addition to the salary of the Translator is Rs 15
in Assistant Translator at Rs 35
the Assistant Translator at Rs 15
one writer at Rs 10
one do at Rs 10
one Attender at Rs 10
one room at Rs 10
Rs 100

3. The J. J. state that the members of the Council has considered the increase since Feb 22nd of 1911 came into operation and that the existing staff was for some time been unable to discharge the duties of the Council
as efficiently as in the past during the past year
there was an increase of 26 in the number of cases instituted in comparison with the number in 1910

instituted in 1905; and the receipts exceeded the expenditure by Rs 16,45-3-11.

4. The Governor in Council authorizes the proposed increase of Rs 15 to the salary of the Translator,
and the appointment
of an Assistant Translator at Rs 35 per mensem. These charges will be entered by the Accountant General in the monthly statement of such charges for submission to the Supreme Government. Before sanctioning the other proposed charges, the Government desire to be furnished with a more definite explanation of the necessity of each charge.
On reference to the Statement

Statement of the number of causes to the report it appears that during the first six years which followed the establishment of the Court, the number of causes instituted was much greater than the number instituted in the past year. The number of causes added to the file under the operation of Act xxv of 1866 during the year 1866 was only 193. Under these circumstances the Government doubt the necessity of appointing an Assistant Comptroller, or of adding to the number of writers such is already large though the salaries paid are very small. No explanation is given with

with reference to the proposal to appoint an additional Attorney and two additional writing clerks.
