Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 31st July 1867.

No. 346. Read the following letter from T. A. N. CHASE, Esq., Magistrate of Kurnool, to the Acting Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Kurnool, 22nd July 1867, No. 56.

I have the honor, with reference to Government Order, Judicial Department, No. 470, dated 29th March 1866, regarding the Subsidiary Jails being visited quarterly by the Covenanted Magistrates, to request the permission of Government to allow this inspection business to be carried out by Officers in charge of Divisions.

2. In this District, there are four Taluqs*, under two Deputy Magistrates, who are vested with the full powers of a Magistrate. To visit their Subsidiary Jails†, six in number, quarterly, takes up an immense deal of time, as the distances are very great, and probably the whole distance I shall have (starting from Kurnool) to traverse, would be about 300 miles. All of these Subsidiary Jails, besides that at Ramalakottah, I inspected in May and June. The work might easily be performed by the Deputy Magistrates in their own Divisions, and I am sure these two Deputy Magistrates would do it just as well as any Covenanted Officer.

3. I do not wish to save myself the trouble of inspecting the Subsidiary Jails, but, occasionally, it may be absolutely impossible for me, or any Covenanted Officer, to visit the Jails; and, therefore, I think it would be advantageous that, when these Subsidiary Jails cannot be inspected by Covenanted Officers for any particular quarter, I should be empowered to direct the Deputy Magistrates to make the inspection of, and report on, the Subsidiary Jails within their jurisdiction.

4. Of course, I will inspect any of these Subsidiary Jails whenever I go into the Taluqs for Jummahbandy, or for any other purpose, besides providing quarterly for the inspections of all the other Subsidiary Jails by the Covenanted Officer in the District.

5. The Government have allowed this course to be adopted, as regards the inspection of the Registration Offices, in Government Order, Judicial Department, No. 792, dated 15th May last.

No. 347. ORDER THEREON, 31st July 1867, No. 1225.

The Government resolve to authorize the arrangement proposed by the Collector of Kurnool, for the inspection of the Subsidiary Jails named in his letter by the Uncovenanted Officers exercising the full powers of a Magistrate, when the services of Covenanted European Officers are not available for this purpose.

2. Mr. Chase will issue instructions to the Deputy Magistrates to whom this duty is assigned, on the points which should specially engage their attention when making these inspections.
