No. 363. ORDER THEREON, 28th August, 1867, No. 1396.

The foregoing Returns from the several Magistrates and the Inspectors General of Police and Jails show that a sum

	Rs.	A.	P.
By Magistrates.....	3,657	13	9
Inspector General of Police.....	1,801	8	0
Do. of Jails.....	530	0	0
Total.....	6,079	5	9

of Rupees 6079-5-9 had been paid during the official year 1866-67 in rewards for meritorious, special, and good services rendered, and in capturing and bringing criminals to justice. With two exceptions the Returns have been drawn up with greater care and accuracy than those of previous years.

2. The exceptions are the Returns of North Arcot and Cuddapah. In the Return from North Arcot the dates on which rewards were offered in 10 out of the 11 entries have been omitted, and the Order of Government, dated 23rd August 1862, No. 1380, empowering Magistrates to grant rewards, has been quoted instead. A reward of Rupees 50 is entered as paid to Daivaraja Charry, Inspector of Police, North Arcot, for apprehending a dacoit. The Magistrate will explain whether the reward was given prior, or subsequent to G. O., dated 24th September 1866, No. 1500, sanctioning the grant of a reward of Rupees 150 to the Inspector in question, for services rendered in North Arcot in the suppression of dacoity, in the detection of robberies, burglaries, and other miscellaneous offences.

3. In the Return for Cuddapah a reward of Rupees 25 is shown to have been paid to Deputy Head Constable Mahomed Cassim, for the apprehension of an

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,

• escaped convict named Soogaly Toolsee, alias Latchma. The power of giving such rewards is vested solely in the Inspector General of Jails, and it is observed from his Return that a reward of Rupees 20 was paid by him to the same Constable for the same purpose. The Magistrate's Return shows that the "date on which the reward was offered or sanctioned" was "29th September 1866," while the Inspector General's Return shows that it was on the "22nd September 1862." It is probable that there may be a clerical error in the latter Return. The Inspector General of Jails will state whether such is the case or not, and he will likewise ascertain whether the rewards given by himself and the Magistrate to Constable Mahomed Cassim were for the capture of the same convict.

4. As Magistrates have not been authorized to grant rewards for the capture of escaped convicts, the Magistrate of Cuddapah will be requested to explain on what grounds he paid the reward of Rupees 25 to Constable Mahomed Cassim.

(True Extract).

Order Pearson 28 August 1867 H: 1390.

The foregoing Returns from the several Magistrates and the Inspector General of

March 28th 1861

The friends of Howard are disappointed of Howard's words pronounced by the friends of peace during the years 1866/67.

of Police and Fails show that a sum of Rs 6079-5-9 had been paid during the official year 1866-67 in rewards for meritorious, special and good services rendered, and in capturing and bringing criminals to justice. With two exceptions the Returns have been drawn up with greater care and accuracy than those of previous years.

2. The exceptions relate to the returns of North Arcot and Cuddalore. In the Return from North Arcot the dates on which rewards were offered in 10 out of the 11 entries have been omitted, and the order of Government dated 23rd August 1862 No 1380, empowering Magistrates to grant rewards has been quoted instead. A reward of Rs 50 is entered as paid to Baivaraja Chary, Inspector of Police North Arcot, for apprehending a dacoit. The Magistrate will explain whether the the reward was given prior or subsequent to G.O. dated 24 September 1866 No 1500, sanctioning the grant of a reward of Rs 150 to the Inspector in question, for services rendered in North Arcot in the suppression of dacoity, in the detection of robberies, burglaries and other miscellaneous offences.

3. In the Return for Cuddalore a reward of Rs 25 is shown to have been paid to Deputy Head Constable Mahomed Caisim, for the apprehension of an escaped convict named Soogaly Tolesia alias Satchma. The power of giving such rewards is vested solely in the Inspector General of Fails, and it is observed from his Return that a reward of Rs 20 was paid by him to the same Constable for the same purpose. The Magistrate's Return shows that the date on of which the Reward was "expected or sanctioned" was "29th September 1866," while the Inspector General's Return shows that it was on the "22nd September 1862". It is probable that there may be a clerical error in the latter Return. The Inspector General of Jails will state whether such is the case or not, and he will likewise ascertain whether the rewards given by himself and the Magistrate to Constable Mahomed Cuseim were for the capture of the same convict.

4. As Magistrates have ~~never~~^{not} been authorized to grant rewards for the capture of escaped convicts, the Magistrate of Cuddapah will be requested to explain on what grounds he paid the reward of Rs 25 to Constable Mahomed Cuseim.
