Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 23rd January 1867.

No. 248. Read the following letter from the Inspector General of Jails, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George ; dated Ootacamund, 21st December 1866, No. 128.

I have the honor to state that Captain Bloomfield, Superintendent of the Central Jail at Rajahmundry, informs me that the Municipal Commissioners have ruled that he must pay the full tax on his salary, inasmuch as he has an occupation within their limits as Superintendent of the District Jail. He also states that as he resides beyond Municipal limits he will be required to pay toll at the turnpike daily on his visit to that Jail.

2. As Captain Bloomfield does not draw any salary for the charge of the District Jail, I request that he may be exempted from payment of the taxes in question, and that any sums paid by him on that account may be refunded.

No. 249. ORDER THEREON, 23rd January 1867, No. 139.

The Government have no power to exempt Captain Bloomfield from any taxes to which he may be liable under the Towns' Improvement Act.
