No. 11. Read the following letter from the Acting Magistrate of Nellore, to the Acting Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Nellore, 21st August 1867, No. 191.

In their Order, dated 12th July 1867, No. 1109, Government ordered the female lunatic Gangula Mahalatchmi to be transferred from the Jail Hospital at Nellore to the Lunatic Asylum at Madras. That Order was duly communicated to the Superintendent of the Zillah Jail, but, in a letter, dated 19th August, No. 129, Doctor E. Eyre Lloyd reports that this female lunatic has subsequently so much improved that he does not consider the transfer necessary, and recommends that she may be delivered over to the care of her relations, on their giving security, under Section 397 of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

2. Under these circumstances, I have the honor to recommend that the sanction of Government may be accorded for the adoption of the course proposed.
