Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 23rd January 1867.

No. 264. Read the following letter from the Session Judge of Nundial, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Kurnool, 7th January 1867, No. 1.

I have the honor to enclose copy of a communication received from the Civil Surgeon in Medical charge of the Jail.

2. The prisoner referred to has served out four years and four months of his sentence, and there still remains a period of one year eight months, and a fine of Rupees 100, for which an additional two years is provided in default.

3. Under the circumstances stated, I have the honor to recommend that the Government will, under Section 54 of the Criminal Procedure Code, remit the unexpired portion of the sentence and the fine.

From the Officiating Civil Surgeon, Kurnool, to the Civil and Session Judge of Nundial; dated Kurnool, 3rd January 1867, No. 2.

I have the honor to forward the following report on the health of Nullam Guruvadu, a convicted prisoner in the Jail Hospital.

Nullam Guruvadu ...	...	...	...	Age 35
Sentence ...	...	6 years, with 100 Rs. fine or 2 years.
In Jail ...	...	4 years and 4 months.
			st. lbs.
Weight on admission into Jail...	...	...	7	7 $\frac{3}{4}$
Present weight ...	...	...	6	3 $\frac{1}{2}$
Loss of weight in 4 years and 4 months ...	...	...	1	1 $\frac{1}{4}$

Crime—House-breaking.

He was several times admitted into the Hospital for fever and dysentery. Doctor Keess saw him with the symptoms of consumption and kept him within the Jail on slight work, and treated him at the same time. Dr. Croudace removed his chains for extreme debility and emaciation. Mr. Nestcher, 2nd Apothecary, admitted this man into the Hospital as he was so much emaciated and excessively weak. Since I had the medical charge of the Jail, I have observed that he is not improving, but on the contrary is every day becoming weaker and more emaciated, and therefore I have no hope of his regaining his health in Jail. He has still one year and eight months, with 100 Rupees fine of his sentence to put in.

This man's behaviour has been good in Jail, and as he will, in all likelihood, never regain his health in Jail, I beg to recommend that the remainder of his sentence be remitted.

No. 265. ORDER THEREON, 23rd January 1867, No. 146.

The Governor in Council observes that there is nothing in the circumstances of the Convict's case that would justify the remission of the remaining portion of his sentence. The case does not come within Section 277 or 279 of the Jail Rules. He should be treated like other patients in the Jail Hospital.
