Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
11th September 1867.

No. 127. Read the following letter from the Magistrate of Ganjam, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Chetterpore, 27th August 1867, No. 2540.

The Acting Accountant General disallows the salary of Mahomed Saib, Acting Sub-Magistrate of Ganjam, on the ground of his not having passed the "Special Test" Examination.

2. This old servant was a Sub-Magistrate before the "Special Test" was invented. He was Sub-Magistrate of Berhampore, but was removed from that office on 23th February last, and reposted to a smaller charge (Sub-Magistrate of Sompot) on 8th March following, and subsequently to his present post. It seems hard that this break of ten days should bear so strictly against him, especially as he has a good reputation, and erred from want of judgment only. He refused a warrant to search the premises of one of the leading merchants of Berhampore, on a charge of receiving stolen goods, when it afterwards appeared that the property was really there. He was of opinion that the character of the accused was above all suspicion, and that he should be censured, and perhaps prosecuted, for misuse of his powers.

3. This occurred before I joined the district, but it is obvious that my predecessor would not have re-employed him in a similar post almost immediately after, had he detected any sinister motives in his conduct.

No. 128. ORDER THEREON, 11th September 1867, No. 1471.

Under the circumstances stated by the Magistrate of Ganjam, the Governor in Council is pleased, as a special case, to exempt Mahomed Saib, Acting Sub-Magistrate of Ganjam, from the Special Test Examination; and to direct that the salary which has been disallowed be passed by the Acting Accountant General.

Sir

The Acting Accountant General disallows the salary of Mahomed Saib, acting Sub Magistrate of Ganjam, on the ground of his not having passed the 'Special Test' Examination.

2 This old servant was a Sub Magistrate before the 'Special Test' was invented. He was Sub Magistrate of Berhampore, but was removed from that office on 25th February last and reported to a smaller charge (Sub Magistrate of Lompot) on 8th March following, and subsequently to his present post. It seems hard that this breach of 10 days should bear so strictly against him, especially as he has a good reputation, and erred from want of judgment only. He refused a warrant to search the premises of one of the leading merchants of Berhampore, on a charge of receiving stolen goods, when it afterwards appeared that the property was really there. He was of opinion that the character of the accused was above all suspicion and that he should be censured and perhaps prosecuted for misuse of his powers.
