Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 25th January 1867.

No. 271A. Read the following letter from B. BROOKS, Esq., Deputy Clerk of the Crown, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Madras, 24th January 1867.

With reference to Act XIII of 1865, Section 28, I am directed by the High Court to state that a telegram, as under, has been received into the Crown Office from the Superintendent of Coorg, and to which answer has been sent, that "Mr. Minchin cannot be committed till Government's pleasure known," under Act XIII of 1865.

2. I am further directed to inquire whether it is the intention of His Lordship the Governor in Council to issue, under the provisions of the above Act, a Commission, authorizing a Judge of the High Court to hold sittings at any place other than the Court's usual place of sittings.

"Mr. Minchin, Planter, has been committed for culpable homicide not amounting to murder, and grievous hurt. It is not an aggravated case, and prisoner most anxious to be tried at this Sessions. I beg of the Judges to allow me to send records and parties at once. Answer prepaid."

No. 271B. To the Honorable Sir A. BITTLESTON, Knight, Acting Chief Justice of the High Court of Judicature, Madras; dated Fort Saint George, 25th January 1867, No. 150.

In acknowledging the receipt of Mr. Brooks' letter of the 24th instant, I am directed to inform you that it is not the intention of the Governor in Council to issue a Commission under the provisions of Act XIII of 1865 for the trial of the case therein referred to.

(Signed) A. J. ARBUTHNOT,
Chief Secretary.
