*Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
18th September 1867.*

No. 202. Read the following letter from the Magistrate of Madura, to the Acting Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Paumben, 10th September 1867, No. 318.

I have the honor to submit for the orders of Government, under Section 390 of the Criminal Procedure Code, a case* in which a prisoner was charged with an offence falling under Section 379 of the Indian Penal Code before the Assistant Magistrate Mr. L. R. Burrows.
2. He is kept in safe custody, pending the orders of Government.

* Copy of Notes.
Copy of the Deposition of the Civil Surgeon.

CALENDAR CASE No.—

Before the Assistant Magistrate.

This case was stayed on the first hearing, 27th instant, in order that an inquiry might be made as to the state of the mind of the accused.

The deposition of Civil Surgeon Dr. J. M. Joseph.—I have examined the person sent to me by you, named Vella Kutti, alias Perea Caruppen. I examined him this morning very carefully. I am of opinion that he is of unsound mind and not responsible for his actions.

The Court resolves to commit the accused Vella Kutti, alias Perea Caruppen, to custody under Section 390 of the Criminal Procedure Code.

MADURA, 28th August 1867.

(Signed) L. R. BURROWS,
Assistant Magistrate.

CALENDAR CASE No.—

Before the Assistant Magistrate, Madura.

Andee versus Vella Kutti, alias Perea Caruppen.

Horse-stealing.

1st Witness Andee, horse-keeper, complainant.—On Friday night I tied the horse up near the Tellaculam Chuttrum and went inside to sleep; the horse belongs to the Chokkemputti Zemin-dar. On Saturday morning at 6 o'clock when I came to look, the horse was gone. I told the Coachman Moottoo Sairvay. We looked all over for the horse and could not find it. There were traces of horse's feet going to Meelur; we followed them up. A man told us that he had seen a man going along with a horse at Tiruvatoor. When we came to Tiruvatoor we found the horse and the prisoner in the hands of the Police. He made known whose property the horse was, and then all joined together and came to Meelur station. Nothing was taken away but the horse. The lantern produced was found in the place where the horse was tied. I don't know whose property it is. I don't know anything about the bow produced. The horse produced is the one that was stolen.

The prisoner volunteers a statement.

The bow is mine. The lantern is the Goripaliem Pallivasel lantern. I took the horse to ride it. I asked for it; they said won't give it, therefore I took. I like riding, &c., &c., &c.

It appears to the Court that the prisoner is insane. The proceedings will, therefore, be under Section 338, Criminal Procedure Code. The Court accordingly resolves to cause the prisoner to be examined by the Civil Surgeon.

MADURA, 27th August 1867.

Assistant Magistrate.
