*Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
20th September 1867.*

No. 220. Read the following letter from J. MASKELL, Esq., Acting Judge, Small Cause Court, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Madras, 18th September 1867.

With reference to the Order of Government, dated 13th June 1867, No. 953, I have the honor to forward, herewith, a Medical Certificate, and solicit that I may be allowed to proceed to England for nine months on sick leave.

2. In the event of the leave now applied for being granted, I beg to state that I purpose availing myself of it from the 14th October 1867.

3. In a letter which I have received from Mr. Cower, he informs me that he will arrive at Bombay by the Steamer due there on the 27th October, and will lose no time en-route to Madras. The Small Cause Court will re-open after the vacation on Monday the 21st October, so that Mr. Cower will rejoin his post soon after the Court commences work. One of the Judges has told me expressly, and I am sure the other would say as much, that the two Judges would be happy to perform the work of the other Judge from the re-opening of the Court until Mr. Cower's arrival. I, therefore, trust that I may be permitted to avail myself of my leave from the date of departure of the first P. and O. Steamer in October, or about the 14th of that month.

I, John Gorman, Licentiate in Medicine and Surgery, do hereby certify, on honor, that John Maskell, Acting 2nd Judge, Small Cause Court, Madras, is in a bad state of health, and I sincerely declare that, according to the best of my judgment, a change of air is essentially necessary to his recovery, and do, therefore, recommend that he may be permitted to proceed to England for twelve months.

MADRAS,
12th September 1867.

Medical Attendant
(Countersigned) J. KENNEDY, M. D.,
Dy. Inpr. Genl. of Hospls., Indian Medl. Dept., Presidency Division.

I do hereby certify that, according to the best of my professional judgment, after careful examination of his case, I consider the state of health of John Maskell, Esq., Acting 2nd Judge, Small Cause Court, Madras, to be such as to render leave of absence to Europe for a period of twelve months to be essentially necessary for his recovery.
