Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
15th October 1867.

No. 129. Read the following letter from the Acting Agent to the Governor of Fort Saint George in Vizagapatam, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Vizagapatam, 4th October 1867, No. 393.

A man, named Kochuru, indicted for murder, was first arrested for the crime in February last, but made his escape from the Police station at Borregam in Jey-pore, when the Police, on their beats, warned all the villagers therabouts to seize him if they chanced to see him. Two villagers, marginally noted, then set out, and, after some time, got on his trail, traced him for a long while in the Bustar country, and at length succeeded in inducing him to come to their village on the border, when he was arrested and handed over to the Police. As the whole of the evidence against the prisoner consisted in that of a single witness, this, in the opinion of the assessors, was insufficient, and the Court concurring, Kochuru was accordingly acquitted and discharged.

1. Gasi Mazzi.
2. Gasi Pujari.

2. Although Kochuru was not, for the reason set forth, convicted, as is required to be specified with reference to G. O., 23rd August 1862, No. 1380, paragraph 3, still, since the two men did apprehend him, after a long wearisome search, in the hope of being rewarded, I have authorized the payment of 20 Rupees to each of them, and I beg that the sanction of Government may be accorded in this instance, as a special case.
