Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 28th January 1867.

No. 302. Read the following letter from the Acting Civil and Session Judge of Bellary, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Bellary, 15th January 1867, No. 3.

The Office of the Foujdary Translator in this Court being temporarily vacant, N. Raghavendra Row, 4th English Clerk, was appointed to act for it, for one month, from the 23rd October to 22nd November 1866, under the impression that the Government Notification, dated 26th March 1859, paragraph 4, page 620, of the Fort Saint George Gazette, stating that "persons who have not passed the Uncovenanted Civil Service Examination may be employed as substitutes for periods not exceeding one month," was also applicable to the Special Test Examination. This arrangement was inevitable, as there was no Passed Translator available, and the work could not be otherwise carried on.

2. The Accountant General having now objected to N. Raghavendra Row's pay as Acting Translator, on the ground that the Notification above alluded to is inapplicable to the Special Test Examinations, I beg that Government will, under the circumstances abovementioned, be pleased to sanction the payment to N. Raghavendra Row of the full salary of the office, for the period during which he discharged the duties of Translator.

No. 303. ORDER THEREON, 28th January 1867, No. 166.
Sanctioned, accordingly, as a special case.
