Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 24th October 1867.

No. 227. Read the following letter from the Civil Judge of Nundial, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Kurnool, 16th September 1867, No. 5.

I have the honor to report certain appointments which I have recently made, which require the sanction of Government.

2. In November last, I granted three months' leave on medical certificate to K. Subba Row, the Fouzdari Translator of this Court, and as no eligible man was procurable here, and it was not to be expected that any one would be willing to come from another District for so short a period, I appointed Ramanuja Naidoo, the 2nd Clerk, an unpassed man, to act for him. This arrangement continued during a month's extension granted after expiration of the first leave. K. Subba Row having then applied for six months more, I passed the enclosed order, appointing Narayanachari, recently entertained on the establishment as 4th Writer. He had at least passed the lower test, and was also more efficient than either the 2nd or 3rd Writer.

3. Ramanuja Naidoo, I may remark, has, on more than one occasion, been permitted to act in the same capacity.

4. I do not doubt my being able to obtain a properly qualified man should the post become permanently vacant, but for short periods it is not possible to get one who has qualified by the Translation test.

5. The Accountant General having objected to pass the salary of the post, I have now the honor to beg that, under the circumstances, Government will be pleased to sanction my arrangements, and to permit their continuance until the return of the permanent incumbent.

ORDER.

As the post of Fouzdari Translator has become vacant for a further period of six months, and it is objectionable that the present arrangement under which the 2nd Writer, who has not passed even the lower grade examination, has been officiating should continue in force, the Court makes the following appointment:—

Narayanachari to act from 1st instant as Translator on full pay. This appointment will be contingent on the sanction of Government (for which application will be made) being given, and will of course terminate in the event of a passed candidate, according to the higher grade, being at any time procurable.
