*Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
28th October 1867.*

No. 251. Read the following letter from the Principal Sudder Ameen of Rajahmundry, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Rajahmundry, 11th October 1867, No. 247.

I most respectfully beg to report that, in consequence of the promotion of M. Sombasiva Row, the Head Writer of my Court, to the office of District Moonsiff, his place was, on the 11th July last, conferred on M. Janikiramaia, the Civil Record-keeper of my Court, who has been continuously in the Public Service since the 6th December 1833.

2. The Acting Deputy Accountant General had, on the 6th ultimo, sent a Memorandum requiring information if M. Janikiramaia passed the Special Test Examination, in answer to which he was informed that the individual has been continuously in the Government service since the 1st January 1859, and that the rules requiring the examination for the office of Head Writer were to take effect after the 1st January 1868.

3. The said Officer has again sent a final adjustment order, dated 2nd instant, directing that, as M. Janikiramaia did not pass the Special Test Examination required under the Notification of 3rd January 1866, the difference of salary between the Civil Record-keeper and Head Writer from the 11th July to 31st August last, amounting to Rupees 33-8-9 should be collected.

4. I beg to state that M. Janikiramaia was appointed by me to the post of the Head Writer, as I then conceived, and am still conceiving, that the Notification of the 3rd January 1866, referred to by the Deputy Accountant General, is of no force, since the modified rules, requiring the Head Writers of the Civil and the Principal Sudder Ameen Courts to pass examination, as specified in the Government Order, of the 21st February 1867, are, from the directions contained in the 3rd paragraph of that Order, to come into operation after the 1st January 1868. He is an old servant of 33 years, and he is well up with all the work of the Court: and out of the only three who have passed in precis-writing in this District, one Koralla Subbaraidu is appointed Sub-Magistrate in another District; the second, D. K. Ramaswamy, is an unemployed and inexperienced lad who has now left the school; and the third, D. Virabhadraia, has no experience of the work of the Courts at all, and I conceive he will not accept the post, for he is a Clerk in the Revenue Department, on a salary equal to that of the Head Writer's post; and I, therefore, respectfully beg that the Government will, on a favorable consideration of the foregoing subject, be pleased to sanction the appointment, and the payment of the salary from the date of the appointment, of M. Janikiramaia to the post of the Head Writer.

5. In conclusion, I beg the Government will be pleased to permit M. Janikiramaia even to act on full salary for the Head Writer of my Court, on condition of his going up for the next examination, if they be not pleased to sanction his appointment permanently.

No. 252. ORDER THEREON, 28th October 1867, No. 1711.

Under the orders of Government, dated the 21st February last, No. 50, persons appointed to the post of Head Writer in the Principal Sudder Ameen's Courts in the Provinces from and after the 1st January 1868 are required to pass the Special Test Examination in precis-writing, but this examination is not applicable to any appointment made before the 1st January 1868.

*Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
28th October 1867.*

2. Under these circumstances, the Audit Department will be directed to pass the salary drawn for M. Janikiramaia as Head Clerk of the Principal Sudder Ameen's Court at Rajahmundry from the 11th July last.
