Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 14th November 1867.

No. 175. Read the following letter from J. D. MAYNE, Esq., Clerk of the Crown, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Madras, 12th November 1867.

With reference to Act XIII of 1865, Section 28, I am directed by the High Court to state that the depositions in the Case of Arthur Richard Alston, William Tyrwhitt Drake, and Robert Charles Henderson, British subjects, charged with voluntarily causing grievous hurt, &c., have been received from the Justice of the Peace and Magistrate of Coorg.

2. I am further directed to inquire whether it is the intention of his Lordship the Governor in Council to issue, under the provisions of the above Act, a Commission, authorizing a Judge of the High Court to hold sittings at any place other than the Court's usual place of sittings.

3. The formal charge sent by the Justice of the Peace and Magistrate of Coorg is herewith forwarded, from which may be gathered the nature of the offence.

No. 176. To the Honorable Sir C. H. SCOTLAND, Kt., Chief Justice of the High Court of Judicature, Madras; dated Fort Saint George, 14th November 1867, No. 1836.

In acknowledging the receipt of Mr. Mayne's letter of the 12th instant, I am directed to inform you that it is not the intention of the Governor in Council to issue a Commission, under the provisions of Act XIII of 1865, for the trial of the case therein referred to.

2. The enclosure received with Mr. Mayne's letter is returned.
