Read the following letter:—

From the Adjutant General, Fort Saint George, 23rd October 1867, No. 562; to the Secretary to Government, Military Department.

With reference to your memorandum No. 112, dated 10th January 1867, transmitting Proceedings of Government, Judicial Department, dated 3rd idem, with Order thereon, No. 6, I have the honor, by order of the Provincial Commander-in-Chief, to forward extracts from register of punishments inflicted by Commanding Officers under the 84th Articles of War in the stations as per margin, for transmission to the Inspector General of Police.

2. At other stations in the Presidency not enumerated herein, and where it was competent to carry out the provisions of the above Articles of War, no punishments have been awarded, therefore no extracts from the registers are furnished.

3. The Provincial Commander-in-Chief observes, with all due deference to the Order of Government, that should it be thereby intended for Commanding Officers of stations to furnish these returns direct to the Inspector General of Police, it would be better to avoid that course, and to follow the one now adopted, viz. of transmitting them through Government.

ORDER, No. 4353, 8th November 1867.

Communicated, through the Judicial Department, to the Inspector General of Police.

2. In lieu of the course suggested in paragraph 3, the Government are of opinion that it would be more convenient if each station Staff Office, furnished the Superintendent of Police of the District in which his station is situated with the Returns in question—printed forms providing for the following items of information being supplied by the Superintendent for that purpose.

1. Name of the accused.
2. Offence charged.
3. Punishment inflicted.

3. The forms should be supplied sufficiently early to admit of their return not later than the end of February.

4. His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief and the Judicial Department are requested to cause the necessary orders to be issued, for giving effect to the above course accordingly.
