Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department
18th November 1867.

No. 207. Read the following letter from the Acting Registrar of the High Court of Judicature at Madras, Appellate Side, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Madras, 8th November 1867, No. 54.

I am directed to submit, for the favorable consideration of Government, a letter dated 2nd ultimo, No. 27, from the Civil Judge of Salem, recommending the grant of an allowance of Rupees (3) three per day for the District Moonsiff, six Annas for the Goomastah, and three Annas for the Messenger, during the time of the quarterly sittings of the Salem District Moonsiff's Court at Yercaud on the Shervaroy Hills.

2. It seems only reasonable to the Judges that some such allowance should be made, and I am accordingly directed to recommend that Mr. Chamier's proposal may receive the sanction of Government.

From C. F. CHAMIER, Esq., Civil Judge of Salem, to the Registrar of the High Court, Appellate Side, Madras; dated Salem, 2nd October 1867, No. 27.

I have the honor to enclose copy of a letter from the District Moonsiff at Salem, dated the 10th ultimo, on the subject of the expenses incurred by him in holding quarterly sittings at Yercaud. It is necessary that some allowance should be granted, but I am unable to recommend that it should be a sum taken at random on each occasion. I think it should be calculated upon some fixed principle, such as a daily rate. For this purpose, I was anxious to learn how much the District Moonsiff's first trip had actually cost. He states that he is unable to furnish such an account of his expenses, but proposes that he should receive, for fifteen days, during which he was absent on this special duty in April last, Rupees 50 for himself, Rupees 7 for his Goomastah, and Rupees 3 for his Peon or Messenger. Taking into consideration the difficulty of obtaining accommodation on the Shervaroy Hills, and the expense of living there, I suggest that a reasonable allowance per day would be Rupees 3 for the District Moonsiff, who out of this sum would have to pay his travelling expenses; six Annas for the Goomastah; and three Annas for the Messenger.

No. 208. ORDER THEREON, 18th November 1867, No. 1856.

The Governor in Council sanctions the grant of the allowances proposed in the foregoing letter for the Moonsiff (1), Goomastah (2), and Messenger (3), of the Salem District Moonsiff's Court, while the quarterly sittings of the Court are held at Yercaud on the Shervaroy Hills.
