Madras
16th November
1867

Sir,

Under the impression that my services have been replaced by Mr. Bowring at the disposal of the Government of Madras, I have the honour to solicit the favour of privilege leave for three months in addition to the time allowed for joining my appointment at Bellary.

2. I have not had privilege leave since my return to India in January 1864. About the month of April 1865, being then acting Co. S. Judge of Rajahmundry, I adjourned the court for the usual period, and, understanding that I had, by the rules then in force, the option of absenting myself from my station during the adjournment, or of applying in due course for privilege leave, I elected to reserve my privilege leave by remaining at Rajahmundry in charge of the court and jail during the adjournment of the court.

3. In January 1866 I took up the post of Co. S. Judge of Bellary; and, finding the civil suits and appeals about two years in arrears, I thought it my duty, instead of taking the usual holidays, to work through the hot weather. At the same time I had the honour to bring the arrears to the notice of Government, who were pleased to appoint a Trin. Supr. Auditor from the 1st of July 1866.

4. From the 12th of September 1866 till the 11th of the present month I have been officially as Judicial Commissioner in Mysore, during which period I have had no leave.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,

Your most obedient servant
