I have the honor to submit, for the favorable consideration of Government, the accompanying letter from Mr. H. G. Turner, Superintendent of Police, Jeypore, now on leave in Bangalore, forwarding the Medical Certificate of his attendant on the state of his health. Mr. Turner requests to have his sick leave curtailed and converted into one month's privilege leave, as he wishes to join his appointment now.

2. I beg further to propose that Mr. Turner be permitted to do duty temporarily in Kurnool.

From H. G. TURNER, Esq., c. s., Superintendent of Police, Jeypore, to the Inspector General of Madras Police; dated Bangalore, 5th November 1867.

In forwarding to you the enclosed certificate of my medical attendant, I have the honor to request that you will be so good as to send this application, for having my medical leave curtailed, to the Chief Secretary, and to express my willingness to serve either in Kurnool or anywhere, where an Officer is wanted.

2. I have further the honor to submit, for the favorable consideration of Government, the request that the leave, which will have been taken at the time of joining my new station, may, provided it does not exceed one month, be reckoned as privilege leave and not as sick leave.

I do hereby certify that Mr. H. G. Turner, c. s., Superintendent of Police, Jeypore, has sufficiently recovered his health to be able to return to any duty out of Jeypore.
