Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
6th February 1867.

No. 27. Read the following letter from the Accountant General, Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Fort Saint George, 1st February 1867, No. 380.

Post Audit Department.

I have the honor to submit the following case for the consideration and orders of Government:—

On 23rd March last Mr. H. St. A. Goodrich, Assistant to the Collector and Magistrate in Ganjam, was appointed to act as Junior Assistant Agent in that District, vice Captain R. C. A. Marshall on leave, and on 18th September was confirmed in that appointment. On 28th of the same month, however, Government notified that Mr. Goodrich's appointment of the 18th idem, as Junior Assistant Agent, was without prejudice to his appointment as Assistant to the Collector and Magistrate of the same District; in consequence of this Notification I find it difficult to determine Mr. Goodrich's position, and the allowances which he should receive.

2. The allowances of the Junior Assistant in Ganjam are the same as those of a Head Assistant, as shown in the margin, but as Mr. Goodrich has not passed either of the two tests prescribed by the Rules for the Examination of Assistant Collectors, dated 26th May 1854, I consider that he is ineligible to receive the allowances of a Head Assistant, even at the lower rate, with reference to the 4th of the rules referred to, wherein it is said that Government will not promote to a Head Assistantship any Assistant who shall not have been examined under those rules, and found qualified according to the second standard.

3. I may add that Mr. Goodrich has drawn the higher rate of a Head Assistant's pay, viz., Rupees 810-5-4 per mensem, from 1st October last, the date on which he took charge of the Junior Assistant's office, and that I have admitted his allowances as an Assistant Collector only, viz., Rupees 427* per mensem, and retrenched the excess, pending the receipt of the orders of Government on the subject.

No. 28. ORDER THEREON, 6th February 1867, No. 193.

The appointment held by Mr. Goodrich is that of Junior Assistant to the Collector and Magistrate and Agent in Ganjam, and the salary payable to him as Junior Assistant Agent is that allowed to Head Assistants in other Districts, viz., Rupees 810-5-4. Mr. Goodrich has been specially exempted from passing the Examination prescribed for Assistants in G. O., Public Department, of the 22nd ultimo, No. 81, a copy of which is enclosed.
