Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,

31st December 1867.

No. 311. Read the following letter from the Collector of Salem, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Salem, 14th December 1867, No. 53.

With reference to the Proceedings of Government under date the 27th ultimo, No. 1939, I have the honor to state that the land is bounded on the east by the high road from Salem to the foot of the Shervaroy Hills, on the west by the Puthent land of Shunmoogam Pillay, on the north by the Jail Superintendent's house under construction and its compound, and on the south by the Central Jail premises. It measures acres 8-21-1 or thereabouts, and the puttah is held in the name of one Shunmoogam Pillay, a ryot of the village of Hustumpatty, in the Muta of Alagapuram.

No. 312. ORDER THEREON, 31st December 1867, No. 2129.

Hindrances having been found to exist to the immediate acquisition of the lands and buildings referred to in the annexed Declarations by purchase from the parties interested therein, the Governor in Council resolves, under the provisions of Section 128 of Act No. XIV. of 1856, and Section 2 of Act No. VI. of 1857, to order that the said lands and buildings be taken possession of on the part of Government, and applied to the purpose for which they are needed, leaving claims for compensation for the lands and buildings to be determined as provided in the said last mentioned Act, and, further, to appoint the Collector of Salem, in communication with the Superintending Engineer of the 5th Division, to carry this order into execution, and to execute any award, and to do all things necessary for completing the business of taking and paying for the said lands and buildings, and for settling all disputes concerning them.

Under the provisions of Act No. VI. of 1857, the Governor in Council of Fort Saint George hereby declares, that all that piece of land situate in the village of Hustumpatty, in the Muta of Alagapuram, in the District of Salem, and held in the name of Shunmoogam Pillay, bounded on the north by the Jail Superintendent's house under construction and its compound, on the south by the Central Jail premises, on the east by the high road from Salem to the foot of the Shervaroy Hills, and on the west by the Puthent land of Shunmoogam Pillay, containing by a recent admeasurement acres 8-21-1, be the same little more or less, is needed and required for a public purpose, and shall be taken by Government at the public expense.
