No. 2814 -

From

The Inspector General of Sails -

Dated 21st December 1866.

FOR ORDERS.

This man was placed in confinement - must him upon this as a State Prisoner on being a dangerous character, and tampering with the Native Army - This step was taken under the unanimous opinion of all form members of the including H.E.H.C.C. who gave a very strong opinion on the case -

There is nothing that I can see in his petition to put him consider in a different light for that in which it was viewed in March last. I certainly would not release him. JP

I am of the above opinion. If there was enough against the man six or eight months ago, to call for his incarceration, there is all that against him now to prevent his release in fact. W.D.H.

I don't quite agree with this decision. I reserve it again for discussion - Council. Under the opinion entertained here I see no reason why the man should ever be released. But it would surely make sense to imprison a man for life on suspicion of ~~late~~ sedition (3) practices when if convicted of the offence he would probably be only imprisoned for a limited term of years. N.P.
