Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,

18th February 1867.

No. 120. Read the following letter from the Acting Civil and Session Judge of Bellary, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Bellary, 7th January 1867, No. 1.

I have the honor to solicit the orders of Government on the following point.

2. Precis writing, Higher Grade, was prescribed for the first time on the 29th July 1865 for Clerks employed in Zillah Courts on salaries of Rupees 50 and upwards. It is stated in the Notification that the Rules would come into operation at the annual examination to be held in 1866, and no person, except those who had applied for the Deputy Collector's test, could have gone in for examination in that test, previously.

3. On a temporary vacancy occurring in my Court, I appointed S. Raghavendra Row, Foujdary Translator, to act as Head Writer, and the Accountant General has now objected to his pay, on the ground that he has not passed the Special Test.

4. S. Raghavendra Row went in for the first of such examinations held in 1866, but the result is not yet known.

5. Pending this, I beg that Government will be pleased to sanction the payment to S. Raghavendra Row of the full salary of the office in which he is officiating from the 10th October 1866.

No. 121. ORDER THEREON, 18th February 1867, No. 241.

Under the circumstances stated, the Governor in Council authorizes the payment to S. Raghavendra Row of the full salary of his acting appointment, pending the result of the Special Test Examination.
