Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 20th February 1867.

No. 148. Read the following letter from the Colonial Secretary at Colombo, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Colombo, 13th December 1866, No. 47.

The Government being desirous of constructing new Gaols in this Colony on an improved system, I am directed by His Excellency the Governor to request that you will be good enough, with the permission of the Right Honorable the Governor of Madras in Council, to favor this Government with as full information as possible on the subject of the construction and internal arrangements, &c., of Gaols in the Presidency of Madras.

His Excellency would be glad if you would, at the same time, cause plans of the best modern Gaols to be furnished.

No. 149. To the Honorable the Colonial Secretary at Colombo; dated Fort Saint George, 20th February 1867, No. 257.

In acknowledging the receipt of your letter of the 13th December last, No. 47, requesting information on the subject of the construction and internal arrangements of Jails in the Madras Presidency, I am directed by the Governor in Council to send copies of the Proceedings of this Government, noted in the margin, together with the standard Plans of District and Central Jails therein referred to. A copy of the Rules in force, for the superintendence and management of Jails, is also forwarded.

(Signed) A. J. ARBUTHNOT,
Chief Secretary.
