Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 13th March 1867.

No. 152. Read the following letter from the Magistrate of the Kistna District, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Masulipatam, 28th February 1867, No. 52.

With reference to Section 390 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, I have the honor to forward, herewith, copy of the proceedings of the Acting Joint Magistrate, dated 18th instant, in the case of lunatic Jalladi Streramulu, who was charged with having committed house-breaking and theft, and request that you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government for the delivery of the said lunatic to the care of his relatives or friends under Section 397 of the above Code.

Proceedings of the Court of the Joint Magistrate, Kistna.

The prisoner Jalladi Streramulu, a Comaty of Gavineevaripalam, a hamlet of Bapatla, has been placed before the Court with a Police Charge Sheet, No. 2 of 1867, accused, under Sections 457 and 380, Indian Penal Code, with breaking into and stealing from the public bungalow at Bapatla certain articles of furniture, among them a chair, a necessary pan, and some cooking spits. When first brought up on the 15th, he seemed to be deranged; of this the mere touching of a necessary pan by a person of his caste would of itself be suggestive. He was placed under the Medical surveillance of the Civil Surgeon, who, in his deposition of this date, confirms my opinion.

2. The Civil Surgeon says, that from his sleeplessness at nights, his dirty personal habits, his singing and murmuring to himself for whole nights, and occasional incoherence, he judges him to be of temporarily unsound mind.

3. I must stay proceedings, therefore, and submit his case to Government, under Section 390, Criminal Procedure Code, through the District Magistrate.

4. Though the alleged offences are not bailable, I am disposed* to recommend that the lunatic be made over to the care of his friends.

* He appears perfectly harmless, and is commonly looked upon as a lunatic in his village.

(Signed) W. WILSON,
Acting Joint Magistrate.

GUNTUR, 18th February 1867.

NOTE.—The property will be re-placed in the public bungalow, and a copy of these Proceedings sent to the District Magistrate.

GUNTUR, 18th February 1867.

Acting Joint Magistrate.

(True Copy).

(Signed) G. THORNHILL,
Magistrate.

No. 153. ORDER THEREON, 13th March 1867, No. 407.

The Governor in Council is pleased to direct, under Section 397 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, that the prisoner, Jalladi Streramulu, be delivered over to the custody of his relatives on their executing the prescribed security.

(True Extract).

Chief Secretary.
