the expenditure for an Additional Principal Sudder Ameen's Court at Calicut

† No. 20, dated 7th March 1867.

for 12 months, I am directed to transmit copy of a letter† from the Judges of the High Court, intimating that the appointment of an additional Principal Sudder Ameen is no longer necessary.

I have the honor to be,

FORT SAINT GEORGE,

13th March 1867.

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

Chief Secretary.

From the Registrar of the High Court of Judicature at Madras, Appellate Side, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Madras, 7th March 1867, No. 20.

I am directed by the High Court to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 10th January, No. 58, inquiring whether it is still considered necessary that an additional Principal Sudder Ameen should be appointed to the Zillah of Calicut. In reply, I am directed to state that an additional Principal Sudder Ameen is no longer necessary. This result is entirely due to the extraordinary exertions and capacity for exertion of the Acting Civil Judge, Mr. Sharpe, and the late and present Acting Principal Sudder Ameens, K. Krishna Menon and Ramen Nair. At the end of September last, the joint files of the Civil and Principal Sudder Ameen's Courts comprised 300 Original and 828 Appeal Suits, of which 200 and 193, respectively, had been pending more than twelve months. There are now only 184 Original and 550 Appeal Suits, of which no more than 100 and 230, respectively, have been pending more than six months. The High Court confidently expect that the present Acting Civil Judge and Principal Sudder Ameen will shortly have so reduced their files that every Suit may be taken up for final disposal within six months from the date of its institution.
