14th March 1867.

No. 205. Read the following letter from the Registrar of the High Court of Judicature at Madras, Appellate Side, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Madras, 11th March 1867, No. 22.

In reply to your letter of the 18th ultimo, No. 240, I am directed to state that the Acting Chief Justice and Judges are decidedly averse to any relaxation of the Rules for the examination of Pleaders, and see no reason why Mr. Henderson should be exempted from passing in the Vernacular of the District in which he wishes to practise.

2. The High Court will, however, consider whether any alteration should be made in the Rules relating to the admission of Attorneys, so as to put Solicitors of the Supreme Courts of Scotland on the same footing as Solicitors of England and Ireland. In the event of such an alteration being made, it will be open to Mr. Henderson to apply to be enrolled as an Attorney of the High Court, and vested with the same privileges as the other Attorneys.

3. The two enclosures of your letter are herewith returned.

No. 206. ORDER THEREON, 14th March 1867, No. 436.

The Governor in Council directs that the foregoing letter from the Registrar of the High Court be communicated to Mr. Henderson.

(True Extract).

Chief Secretary.

To J. C. Henderson, Esq., Tellicherry, with two enclosures, returned.
