Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 16th March 1867.

No. 217. Read the following letter from S. PARTHASARADHY CHETTY, Translator in the High Court, Appellate Side, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Madras, 7th February 1867.

With due respect and submission, I beg to bring to the notice of Government that I have undertaken to print in the Tamil and Telugulanguages the Revenue Code, with a view to supply the want felt by the majority of the Public. As this work is mainly intended to assist those candidates who prepare for the Special Test Examinations, I request to ascertain from Government whether they have any objection to my inserting in the said work the several Manuals* prescribed for the Special Test.

* Salt Manual.
Village Manual.
Taluq Manual.
Sea Custom Manual.

Post Office Manual.
Orders respecting Telegraphs.

2. Further, I beg to add that the Board of Revenue, on my applying to them for their permission to allow me to print the vernacular translations of Sea Custom Manual, have referred me to Government, and thus I am induced to apply to them for such permission.

3. Expecting an early reply, I beg to remain, &c.

No. 218. ORDER THEREON, 16th March 1867, No. 450.

The Government see no objection to a translation of the Manuals and Books specified in the foregoing letter being included in the proposed work.
