MARCH.

No. 243.

Passing orders regarding the salaries of Mr. T. G. Clarke, Magistrate of the Town Police and of Captain Weldon, Magistrate of the Royapettah Police Court.

Judicial Department.

The Government are much indebted to Her Lordship for the close and careful inspection of the Lectures visited by persons highly reputable and I feel satisfied that much general benefit will be the result of the observations which Her Lordship has kindly been enabled to make. The improvements & measures suggested by Her Lordship ought to be carried into effect as early as possible for this purpose I have ordered for the Lordship's minutes to be forwarded to the Magistrate of the Town Police & the Magistrate of the Royapettah Police Court for their consideration & the Supt. of the Town Police & the Supt. of the Royapettah Police Court.

 It is found that Colbeck occupies the upper story of the Registrar's Office.
 Office - as I believe his private cellars have been - whether he pays any rent for it I am not aware. There is no reason why he should have paid
 - this rent his Court. how of the the Magistrate has been - He has going down this with Colbeck & Co and the paper story made available.
 - all for some public office. I mention this as it occurs to me - & that it is not directly connected with the subject of the Commission.
