*Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
20th March 1867.*

Read the following papers:—

No. 244. From the Session Judge of Nellore, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Nellore, 5th March 1867, No. 16.

I have the honor, with reference to Section 390 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, to enclose copy of a Judgment passed this day, in view to Government issuing such directions as it may deem proper, relative to the place where the accused is to be kept in custody.

2. The Zillah Surgeon, under whose observation the lunatic has been for the last 4 or 5 weeks, is of opinion that the unsoundness of mind is not likely to be permanent.

3. Pending receipt of the orders of Government, I have issued a warrant for the confinement of the accused in the Nellore Jail.

JUDGMENT of the Session Court of Nellore, in Case No. 5 of 1867.

The evidence of the Zillah Surgeon, under whose observation the accused has been for some time, proving her to be of unsound mind, and incapable of making her defence, the trial must be postponed.

SESSION COURT,
NELLORE,
5th March 1867.

(Signed) C. R. PELLY,
Session Judge.

The Session Judge is requested to report the nature of the offence with which the prisoner referred to in the foregoing letter is charged.

FORT SAINT GEORGE,
9th March 1867.

(Signed) A. J. ARBUTHNOT,
Chief Secretary.

No. 244A. From the Session Judge of Nellore, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Nellore, 11th March 1867, No. 18.

With reference to your endorsement, of the 9th instant, on my letter, No. 16, soliciting instructions as to the place where one Yadanali Lutchmea is to be kept in custody, I have the honor to state, in reply, that she is charged, under Section 369 of the Indian Penal Code, with having kidnapped a child under 10 years, with intent to steal moveable property from the person of such child, an offence which is not bailable. I beg to return my letter, referred to above, and its enclosure.

No. 245. ORDER THEREON, 20th March 1867, No. 463.

Under Section 390 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, the Governor in Council directs that the lunatic Yadanali Lutchmea be kept in custody in the District Jail at Nellore, until she is sufficiently recovered to be put on her trial. Should the prisoner's state of mind not improve, the Medical Officer in charge of the Jail will report upon it at the end of six months.
