21st March 1867.

No. 267. Read the following letter from the Inspector General of Jails, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Madras, 13th March 1867, No. 159.

I have the honor to report that a convict, named Menta Soobbiah, was released from the Jail at Nellore on the 24th January last, under the provisions of the 277th paragraph of the Jail Rules. The prisoner was convicted of house-breaking by night, and was sentenced on the 3rd March 1866 to rigorous imprisonment for one year, so that six weeks only were unexpired at the period of his release.

2. The letters of the Superintendent of the Jail, together with the Certificates of the Medical Officer and of an Official Visitor, are herewith forwarded. The Certificate of the latter was returned in the first instance, because it was not written upon official paper.

From the Superintendent of Jail, Nellore, to the Inspector General of Jails, Madras; dated Nellore, 24th January 1867, No. 9.

In accordance with paragraph 278, Section 24 of the Jail Rules, I have the honor to report the release (under paragraph 277) this day of a convicted prisoner Menta Soobbiah, Register No. 182, sentenced by the Acting Head Assistant Magistrate, Nellore, on the 3rd March 1866, to one year's rigorous imprisonment and 20 Rupees fine (since paid), for having committed an offence of house-breaking by night.

2. He is in a bad state of health, suffering from diarrhoea and dropsy, and he has been frequently in hospital but without any permanent effect, and it is considered that a further confinement will prove fatal to him. The unexpired portion of his sentence is but a period of six weeks.

3. A Certificate by the Medical Officer and a written consent of one of the Official Visitors, Acting Head Assistant Magistrate, are enclosed, as required under paragraph 277 of the Jail Rules.

From the Superintendent of the Jail, Nellore, to the Inspector General of Jails, Madras; dated Nellore, 4th February 1867, No. 15.

In accordance with your letter, No. 1166, dated 26th ultimo, I have the honor to enclose a revised Certificate from the Acting Head Assistant Magistrate.

2. The disease under which Menta Soobbiah was suffering was contracted in the Jail.

CERTIFICATE.

I do hereby certify that convicted prisoner Menta Soobbiah, No. 182, is in a bad state of health; during his imprisonment, since 3rd March 1866, he has been frequently in hospital, and is now suffering from diarrhoea and dropsy, and considering that a prolonged imprisonment will prove fatal to him, and that he has a fair chance of recovery if released, I recommend, in conformity with paragraph 277, Section 24 of the Jail Rules, that he may be released, he having but six weeks further sentence.

NELLORE,
23rd January 1867.

(Signed) E. E. LLOYD,
Zillah Surgeon, Nellore.

With reference to paragraph 277, Section 24 of the Jail Rules, I hereby consent, on inspection of the convicted prisoner Menta Soobbiah, and on the Certificate of the Medical Officer, to the release of the said convicted prisoner Menta Soobbiah.

NELLORE, HD. ASST. MAGT.'S OFFICE,

CAMP PODALAKUR,

24th January 1867.

To the Superintendent of Jail at Nellore.

(Signed) H. E. STOKES,
Ag. Hd. Asst. Magistrate and Official Visitor.
