29th March 1867.*

No. 355. Read the following letter from the Inspector General of Police, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George ; dated Madras, 11th January 1867, No. 55.

In continuation of my letter, No. 2112 of the 21st December last, I have the honor to bring to your notice that the Superintendent of Police, Ganjam, when first forwarding application for pension to the heir of the deceased Constable, No. 1345, nominated his widow Erramah, but has, at the request of the widow, entered in the Register of application the name of Jerri Camiah, son of the deceased.

2. On making a reference to the Examiner of Claims, as to whether the son may be nominated for pension, that Officer informs me that the question can only be decided by Government.

No. 356. ORDER THEREON, 29th March 1867, No. 518.

The Government do not see sufficient reason for substituting the name of the son of the late Constable, No. 1345, in lieu of that of his widow in the Register of application for pension.
