Read the following papers :—

No. 64. From the Inspector General of Jails, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Madras, 8th April 1867, No. 6.

I have the honor to submit, for favorable consideration, an application from the Superintendent of the Central Jail at Coimbatore, for seven days' casual leave during the Easter holidays; Dr. Roberts, the Officer in Medical charge, having consented to act during the absence of Mr. Grimes.

2. I take this opportunity to inquire whether, in the case of the Superintendent of a Central or District Jail applying for leave during the Easter or Christmas holidays, or for special casual leave at any other time, for a period not exceeding seven days, due provision having been made for conducting the duties during his absence, it is competent to the Inspector General of Jails to grant such leave, without previous reference to Government.

From H. R. GRIMES, Esq., Superintendent of the Central Jail at Coimbatore, to the Inspector General of Jails, Madras; dated Coimbatore, 4th April 1867, No. 31.

I have the honor to request that you will be pleased to grant me seven days' casual leave for the Easter Holidays, to proceed to Coonoor; the leave to commence from the 18th instant.

2. Dr. Roberts has consented to act for me during my absence.

Referred to the Examiner of Claims for report.

MEMORANDUM.

The undersigned has the honor to report that, if Mr. Grimes had asked for permission to remain absent from his station during the Easter holidays, which, as notified by Government, extend for six days only, and if the Inspector General of Jails considered that this could be granted without detriment to the Public Service, this would have been an application with which this office would have had no concern, but, as Mr. Grimes asks for seven days' leave, this can be granted by Government only as seven days' privilege leave.

2. With regard to the 2nd paragraph of the Inspector General's letter, the undersigned is of opinion that Heads of Departments may grant leave to their subordinates to quit their stations during the recognized Government holidays, and it rests with Government to delegate to them the power to do so.

3. But in the matter of Government themselves granting or delegating to the Inspector General power to grant casual leave to the extent of seven days, on provision being made for the conduct of the absentee's duties, the undersigned begs to

of Rules and Regulations, affecting leave and allowances, &c., of Officers employed in Civil Departments, wherein it is stated that gazetted Officers are not allowed casual leave. This Regulation occurs in the Chapter allotted to Uncovenanted Servants, and Financial Department Order, No. 553, dated 31st May 1864, is referred to in the margin as the authority for the same. This Order has not been communicated to this office, or a copy of the same would have accompanied this, had it not been communicated to the Madras Government direct.
