Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 10th April 1867.

No. 75. Read the following letter from the Civil and Session Judge of Madura, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Madura, 2nd April 1867, No. 110.

I have the honor to acknowledge your Memorandum, attached to the Government Order, dated 28th ultimo, No. 512, requesting me to report whether there is any necessity for the removal of the Civil and Session Court from the building in which it is located, and, if there is, whether the Bungalow referred to in paragraphs 4 to 6 of the Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Department, dated 7th March 1867, No. 232, is adapted for use as a Court-house, and to inform you that there is no necessity whatever for removing the Civil and Session Court from the building in which it is held, probably the finest Court-house in Southern India, and my opinion that the Lying-in-Hospital Bungalow is altogether unsuited for such a Court, there not being a room in it fit, or capable of being made fit, for a Court.

No. 76. ORDER THEREON, 10th April 1867, No. 575.
Communicated to the Public Works Department.
(True Extract).
