To Mr. J. Walhouse Esquire
Civil Judge of Mangalore
Sir

Referring to my letter of the 4th Instant, forwarding an Inventory of the unclaimed property in deposit in my Court for the prescribed time, I have the honor to enclose herewith the translation of a will found among the effects of the deceased Trika Shetti, No 99, in the Inventory, together with a list showing the particulars of the legacies claimed and unclaimed, and to state that although the executor therein named had predeceased Trika Shetti, none else has been appointed in his stead. As it is, however, doubtful whether the several individuals, in whose favor bequests are made and who are stated with the unclaimed property, No. 86 in the file

Among the effects of Trika Shetti, there is to be found a will in Gujarati dated 6th December 1859, and of which a translation is hereto annexed. Three of the Gujarati residents in this town, and of whom the 1st is a very respectable person, swear that the document is in the deceased's hand, and there is no reason to doubt that it is otherwise than authentic. In this will, an executor by the name of Pisurji Topi, who predeceased Trika Shetti, had been appointed, and no successor appears to have been named.
No claim has hitherto been advanced by any of the several persons to whom bequests are made, except the deceased's concubines.

The claims advanced by the concubines having been disposed of, it remains for me to consider how I am to deal with the other assets unclaimed, although devised. As these are taken into custody, as an escheat and not
