No. 222. Read the following letter from the Magistrate of Salem, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Salem, 10th May 1867, No. 24.

2. Both the accused parties were arrested under the warrant issued by my Joint Magistrate, and are now in custody at Oosoor, pending the sanction of Government.

3. The Joint Magistrate informs me that the charges against the two men are well founded, and will, in all probability, end in their conviction.
