Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 28th May 1867.

No. 279. Read the following letter from the Inspector General of Jails, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Madras, 9th May 1867, No. 24.

With reference to the Order of Government noted in the margin, directing that a lunatic, named Chintam Venkata Reddi, should be detained in the Jail at Nellore under the provisions of Section 390 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, I have the honor to state that, in the month of March last, the Superintendent of the Jail reported that the prisoner was very noisy, especially at night, disturbing the other prisoners, and that although his health had improved considerably there had been no change in his mental condition, for which reasons he recommended that he should be transferred to the Lunatic Asylum at Madras. In reply, I requested that a further report might be made at the expiration of three months from the date of the admission of the convict into Jail, viz., 23rd January 1867. I have now the honor to forward the second report, in which it is stated that no improvement has taken place, and I therefore request that sanction may be procured for the transfer of the prisoner to the Lunatic Asylum, where I have ascertained he can be accommodated.

From the Superintendent of the Jail, Nellore, to the Inspector General of Jails, Madras; dated Nellore, 4th May 1867, No. 74.

With reference to your letter, No. 1409, dated 27th March 1867, in answer to mine of No. 42, dated 20th March 1867, I have the honor to report that no improvement has taken place in the insane male prisoner Chintam Venkata Reddi,* he continues noisy and troublesome, and causes mischief and danger to the Jail, and the Jail property. I would, therefore, request that you will be good enough to obtain the sanction for the transfer of the said insane prisoner to the Lunatic Asylum at Madras for further treatment and observation.

* Admitted into the Jail on the 23rd January 1867.

No. 280. ORDER THEREON, 28th May 1867, No. 869.

Resolved that a copy of the Proceedings of Government, dated the 16th instant, No. 806, be communicated to the Inspector General of Jails, who will be requested to bring up the case of the lunatic at Nellore when he has ascertained from the Superintendent of the Lunatic Asylum that there is accommodation for the lunatic in question.
